

Job Announcement

Documentation Center of Cambodia (DC-Cam) is a Cambodian Non-governmental Organization, founded in 1995, ensuring memory and justice in Cambodia with respect to the abuses of the infamous Democratic Kampuchea (DK). DC-Cam documents the history of DK and promotes accountability and the rule of law, holding the world's largest body of information and educating Cambodian new generation and the world about the regime to prevent its reoccurrence.

Researcher for Chinese Research Project (2 positions)

Location: Phnom Penh

Status: Full-time

Working Hours: Monday to Friday

Duties:

- Working 5 days per week (from Monday to Friday)
- Taking part in the quest to gather information and publishing crucial materials acting as the references for local and international scholars and/or researchers in their future research related to Khmer Rouge regime
- Translating reports and other documents related to the project from Chinese to English or Khmer and the other way around
- Conducting field interviews with survivors and relevant sources of information
- Assisting local and international researchers and learners on related issues
- Producing articles related to the data collected
- Reporting to the project director weekly and monthly

Qualification

- Hold a bachelor degree from a credential university in any field of study. Fresh graduates are welcome.
- Be proficient in English and Khmer, Mandarin is preferred, both verbal and written
- Have strong commitment in driving the success of the project, passionate about history and aim to have further degree abroad
- Possess creativity in performing works related to the project
- The candidate must go through three-month probation before getting the full-time employment status.

To apply for this position, please send Cover Letter and CV to the address: 66, Preah Sihanouk Blvd., Sangkat Tonle Bassac, Khan Chamkar Mor, Phnom Penh or to email: truthpheana.s@dccam.org.

For more detail please contact Ms. Sopheak Pheana, Director of Chinese Research and Mass Communication at 092 234 707