General Release – Horseshoe Point Cup 2015

I understand the inherent dangers of riding or being around horses and I am willing to accept the risks of working with or on horses.

I hold the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point; its owners, employees, agents, sponsors, and/or volunteers harmless, for any and all injuries or illness incurred by myself, my horse(s) and others that accompany me in the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point property. I shall bring no claims, demands, actions, causes or action and/or litigation against International Riding School and Horseshoe Point and/or its associates as stated above, for any loss due to bodily injury or death sustained by me, my minor children, legal ward, or horse(s) in relation to the premises and operation of the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point; which includes riding, handling, or being near horses while at the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point.

I understand and agree that the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point is not responsible for any act, occurrence, or element of nature that can scare, endanger or cause harm to a horse, causing it to react in an unsafe manner.

I understand and agree that by using the facility at the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point, I have to repair or reimburse the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point for all expenses which include materials and time in the event of any damage to stables, equipment, jumps, arenas, or any part of the property that is damaged by my horse(s) or myself.

I understand and agree that inhumane treatment of the horse(s) or repeated unsafe acts will immediately void all agreements and I will forfeit all rights to access this premises.

I understand that the International Riding School and Horseshoe Point shall not be liable for any untoward incident and injury to the horse(s) or damage to any personal property should my horse(s) escape from the enclosures while inside the property.

And I fully understand that I will be personally responsible for any damages and/or injuries to other person or their belongings and properties, that is either caused by me, my dependent(s), my employee(s), and my horse(s) .

My participation in the Horseshoe Point Cup 2015 signifies my agreement and unconditional acceptance of the above statements.
