

The Ultimate Couple Flex: Budgeting Together with Maya

THE hottest couple finance trend is all about making money moves and leveling up together. Whether you're planning a dream vacation, saving for a new home, or just wanting to avoid awkward "who pays?" moments, money dates are the next-level relationship upgrade you didn't know you needed.

With Maya, the #1 Digital Bank in the Philippines, saving, spending, and managing money together is seamless, rewarding, and, dare we say, kind of cute. Here's how to turn your couple goals into real financial wins.

Set the Mood for Smart Spending

Light some candles, grab a glass of wine or coffee for a cozy money date and open the Maya app for a stress-free, no-judgment check-in on your finances. Think of it as relationship goal setting but for your bank account.

Make It a Savings Challenge

Who says budgeting can't be fun and a little competitive? Set a spending limit and challenge each other to plan the most creative, wallet-friendly date—whether it's a DIY charcuterie night, a scenic picnic, or a street food adventure. The one who gets the most bang for their buck wins, and whatever's left? Straight into your savings to fuel your next big couple splurge.

Build Your Couple's Wishlist Fund

Manifesting a dream vacay, a cozy new condo, or finally bringing home a fur baby? Maya Personal Goals lets you set up five different savings targets (with cute icons, of course), each earning six percent p.a. No more "we should start saving for that"—now, you actually are.

Ditch the 'Who Pays?' Drama

No one likes the awkward bill dance at dinner. Paying with Maya makes splitting expenses completely seamless. Even better? Every time you pay with Maya, you're also boosting your savings interest up to 15 percent p.a. interest. So, your love and your bank account are growing at the same time.

Make Cashback Your Couple Currency

Couples who budget together, earn rewards together. With the Landers Cashback Everywhere Credit Card, every purchase comes with perks! Get up to five percent cashback on grocery runs at Landers, two percent on romantic date nights, and one percent on surprise gifts for each other—plus extra rewards when you book trips on Agoda, Japan Airlines, Trip.com, or even enjoy workouts together with ClassPass and comfort food at Jollibee.

This love month, start building something that lasts—a financially empowered future together. Whether it's saving for big milestones, spending smarter, or simply getting on the same page about money, Maya makes it effortless.
