

Fairlie Williams

Fairlie Williams is Program Director of ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program (AADCP II).

Fairlie has worked for the Australian Government since 2002 and has been AADCP II Program Director since July 2013. She has previously worked on Australian aid projects in both Indonesia and Timor-Leste.

Working with ASEAN to support development of the MRA for Tourism Professionals

AADCP II

ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II

What is AADCP II?

- ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II
- Long term program (2008-2019) supporting ASEAN's goal of establishing the AEC by 2015 and the post-2015 vision
- Projects in a number of sectors including: services, investment, consumer Protection, Agriculture, Connectivity and Financial Integration
- Partnership Program

AADCP II

ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II

Australia has been working with ASEAN since 2004 to develop the tourism professionals industry:

- AADCP (2004-2008)
- AADCP II (2008-2019)

AADCP II

ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II

AADCP II support has funded:

- A set of toolboxes based on the Common ASEAN Tourism Curriculum and the ASEAN Common Competency Standards for Tourism Professionals (ACCSTP).
- Competency-based training
- A feasibility Study for the establishment of the Regional Secretariat for ASEAN Tourism Professionals
- An ASEAN Qualifications Equivalent Matrix (AQEM)
- Development of the ASEAN Tourism Professional Registration System (ATPRS)

AADCP II

ASEAN-Australia Development Cooperation Program Phase II

- Working with the ASEAN Tourism Professional Monitoring Committee (ATPMC) and The ASEAN Secretariat?

