

The Core Principles of Value Investing

To maximize your learning, print this worksheet in advance & be prepared to use it as we go through the video!

Video link: <http://BursaMethod.com>

1. Value investing is buying a _____ for 60 cents.
2. The first principle: "Owning stocks means you own _____ a business." You become a co-_____ of the business.
3. The second principle: "The market is there to _____ you, not guide you."
4. The price swings in the stock market allows us to buy _____ at low prices.
5. Buying good businesses at price below their _____ value provides a cushion against uncertainties faced by the business in the future. This is the third core principle known as _____ of safety.
6. Unit trust funds mostly matches _____'s performance. Most funds' performance is mediocre.
7. Most blue chips are either overvalued or _____-valued. It is hard to find bargain in these blue chip stocks in normal market.

You can fill in the blank in this worksheet easily by watching the training video at:

www.BursaMethod.com

prepared by KCLau, financial educator and bestselling author training provided by Peter Lim, full-time stock investor and master trainer of Bursa Method