

“The C3A portal has plenty of interesting and relevant information for seniors, such as upcoming events, courses, and news. The portal is user-friendly to navigate and I like the featured option of displaying larger font sizes too.”

Dora Lim, 64

“Technology has not only enabled me to adapt to the current society, but was also a tool to widen my social circle, as if I did not have a blog, I would not have met so many new friends.”
