

Sabbe saṅkhārā aniccā ti,
Yadā paññāya passati,
Atha nibbindatī dukkhe,
Esa maggo visuddhiyā.

(Dhp. V. 277)

When one sees with wisdom that all component things are transient, he overcomes misery. This is the path to purity.