The five elements that come from the sacred Indian cow are sacred and are medicine for the heart; they give strength and enhance the intellect. They give long life, purify the blood, and balance the Vath, Pith, and Kafa doshas. They cure all diseases and detoxify the body.

('Susruta Samhita')

- Panchgavya has been a major component in ancient Vedic rituals and the Indian Ayurvedic system. It creates consciousness all around and a mysterious aura that is religious and spiritual in the human soul enhances emotions. Spread the aura of purity in your house with Gaumay Aayushbatti™
- Gaumay Aayushbatti™ made from Desi Gir Cow punchgavya along with more than 18 natural herbs to create a positive aura; purifies the surroundings and spiritualize the ambiance. The lighting of these will produce the same fragrance as a Hawan Yagna, which is extremely beneficial for physical and spiritual wellbeing.
- These also tend to have ample medicinal and therapeutic properties like healing asthma, headaches, anxiety, insomnia, bronchitis, and digestive problems etc. The Gaumay Aayushbatti™ is also very effective in boosting focus and concentration
- What's more? The ash from burnt Gaumay Aayushbatti™ has antiseptic properties, which can be used to protect plants from insects*. So there's nothing like a waste that needs to be disposed of when you use a product from the Desi cow, there's a reuse for every by-product too.
