Guidelines for Admission in

Master of Business Administration (Integrated)

(Academic Year 2026-27)

1. Admissions to Master of Business Administration (Integrated) program shall be given as under:

a) State Quota (SQ): A minimum of fifty percent (50%) of the total sanctioned intake shall mandatorily be filled as State Quota, on the basis of the merit list prepared by the GCAS. In the event an institute does not opt for Management Quota, one hundred percent (100%) of the total sanctioned intake shall be filled through the merit-based admission process. Bifurcation of State Quota for the preparation of Merit list is as per Point 6(b).

b) Management Quota (MQ) (Applicable to Non-Aided / Self-Financed Institutes Only): Non-Aided / Self-Financed institutes may opt for a Management Quota of up to fifty percent (50%) of the total sanctioned / approved intake, which shall include fifteen percent (15%) Non-Resident Indian (NRI) seats. These seats shall be filled by the management of the respective Institution on the basis of the inter-se merit list of applicants.

[Note:

- Opting for Management Quota is at the discretion of the institute. Govt. Aided / Govt. institutes are not entitled to Management Quota seats.
- Management Quota seats shall be filled by the institute through a merit list prepared by its own Admission Committee, in accordance with the procedure determined by GTU.
- All the sanctioned seats of the said program in the GTU affiliated Institutes shall be considered as available seats for admission.
- The final determination of seat availability shall be binding as per the directions of the University.]

2. Duration and Eligibility for Admission

- Total Duration of the Master of Business Administration (Integrated) program is 5 Years.
- To seek admission to the Master of Business Administration (Integrated) program, a candidate shall have passed
 - the qualifying examination of Standard 12th (10+2 pattern) from a recognized Board, under any stream. OR
 - completed a Diploma (10+3) or equivalent with the Higher Secondary (12th Standard) Equivalence Certificate issued by the Competent Authority (State Education Board)
- Admissions shall be made on a merit basis, determined by the aggregate percentage of marks obtained in Standard 12th (HSC) Examination or Equivalent Diploma. Where a mark sheet reflects Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) instead of percentage, the candidate shall produce an equivalence percentage certificate issued by the respective Board / University.
- Candidates who have passed the Standard 12th / qualifying examination in any year prior to the current academic year shall also be eligible, provided all other conditions are fulfilled.
