Self-Plagiarism

The University Grants Commission has issued a public notice on Self-Plagiarism vide dated 20/04/2020. In line with the same, it is herewith informed to all the stakeholders of the University to note the following;

- (i) Reproduction, in part or whole, of one's own previously published work without adequate citation and proper acknowledgment and claiming the most recent work as new and original for any academic advantage amounts to 'text-recycling' (also known as 'self-plagiarism') and is not acceptable.
- (ii) Text-recycling/self-plagiarism includes:
 - Republishing the same paper already published elsewhere without due and full citation;
 - Publishing smaller/excerpted work from a longer and previous without due and full citations in order to show a large number of publications;
 - Reusing data already used in a published work, or communicated for publication, in another work without due and full citation;
 - Breaking up a longer/larger study into smaller sections and publishing them as altogether new work without due and full citations;
 - Paraphrasing one's own previously published work without due and full citation of the original.
- (iii) Self-citations do not add any number/s to the individual's citation index or h-index in global academia.
