Subject: Strict Adherence to Admission Eligibility Norms for Verification of Students for Admission through GCAS

It has come to the notice of the University that the verification of students was not properly conducted by the Institutional Verification Centre for admissions through GCAS. All affiliated institutes are hereby strictly instructed to ensure thorough and accurate verification of candidate eligibility, in strict compliance with the prescribed admission norms of GTU, to maintain the integrity of the admission process under GCAS.

The designated verification officers and institute authorities shall be held fully accountable for any inaccurate verification or approval of ineligible candidates. Disciplinary action shall be initiated against the responsible verification officers and/or institute authorities in case of such violations, as per the GTU penalty norms.

This circular must be circulated among all staff members involved in admission-related activities at the institute.
