Dear Sir/Madam,

International Institute of Waste Management (IIWM) in collaboration with AICTE is organizing National Women Entrepreneurship Conclave (WeCon 2018) on 29th & 30th Aug 2018 at Bangalore. This Conclave will introduce 'Entrepreneurship Opportunity in Waste Management' as part of multiple initiatives such as Swatch Bharat, SAGY program & Student Startup Policy of AICTE.

The proposed Conclave (WeCon 2018) will enrich students of AICTE's approved technical institutions with the below mentioned exposure:

- Technical know-how and potential of Green Technologies and Waste Management including Entrepreneurship possibilities.
- Exposure about various funding avenues
- Launch of online portal to link various budding entrepreneurs for hand-holding
- Examples of successful entrepreneurs in the form of presentations by leading women entrepreneurs.

In this regard, all the AICTE's approved institutions offering UG/PG in Engineering & Technology and MBA, from across India are requested to be part of this event by nominating 3 final year/third year women students to participate in the Conclave. Colleges from Bangalore may nominate 15 students each.

Principals of respective colleges may nominate the participants through the online module made available at www.wecon.in. The registration is completely free, but the travel expenses of the nominated students may be borne by respective colleges or have to make own arrangement. Boarding and lodging for the outstation participants will be provided by IIWM for two nights. Last date for nomination is 15th of August 2018 (extended).

There is also an associated event called 'Innovation Challenge' scheduled as a part of the main Conclave. It has been proposed to take winners of this contest to Germany for an Industrial visit. More details of the program can be seen from www.wecon.in.
