

National Library Conclave on the virtual platform on January 21 2021

The Covid-19 has taught us to extensively adapt the digital platform for using Information and access to the literature for personal and public use. The increasing communications through digital mode also demand the awareness of fair use of copyright content. Copyright is one of the thorny problems wherein creative contributors often have the pain of plagiarism. The understanding and enforcement of a balanced IP regime, especially in the copyright sector, require brainstorming among the major stakeholders.

We at JNU are organizing a National Library Conclave on the virtual platform on January 21, 2021, wherein we want to plan the brainstorming sessions designed on the below-given themes wherein eminent speakers are going to share their views:

1. One Nation – One Subscription by Hon'ble Prof. K VijayRaghavan, Principal Scientific Advisor to Govt. of India
2. Copyrights provisions for Library: Guidelines for Librarian by Prof. Prabuddha Ganguli, Honorary Visiting Professor of ABVSME, JNU
3. Copyrights challenges in the digital era by Hon'ble Smt Pratiba Singh, Honorable Judge, Delhi High Court

The objective is to connect all intellectual stakeholders like Academicians, Researchers, Scholars, Librarians, Advocates, IP Professionals of our country on a single platform to make them aware of various copyright provisions under the digital era and brainstorm on the given topics. The conclave outcome will conclude as a report on the above topics that shall be submitted to relevant agencies in the Govt. of India to take up the findings for timely action further on the same.
