

Online Faculty Development Program on "Traditional Indian Knowledge Systems"

We are happy to inform you that, MIT School of Architecture, an institute belonging to MIT ADT University, Pune, is organizing a Faculty Development Program on "Traditional Indian Knowledge Systems" with the National Institute of Advanced Studies in Architecture (NIASA).

The awareness and research on Traditional Indian Knowledge Systems is the need of the hour and should be addressed immediately. This program is a humble attempt towards not just creating this awareness, but also to prepare a teaching culture for the next generations to come.

In view of the above, AICTE requests you to kindly disseminate this information among all the faculty members so that more teachers and practising architects who are interested in it can benefit from this program. The program is scheduled for 4 days from 10th to 13th May 2021, from 10:30 am to 3:30 pm on ZOOM online platform.

The poster and other registration details are attached herewith for your reference.
