Circular

Important Circular for Special extension to the Students whose validity of enrolment number has expired

Reference: Approved Submission dated 4th January 2021

It is hereby informed to institutions and students that University has decided to provide one more last chance to those students whose validity of the enrolment number is expired as per Notification No. 1 /2012 dated 13th April 2012. As per the notification the students whose last two terms or one term of the course is not granted but validity is over.

The details the guidelines is given below:

The students whose last two terms or one term of the course is not granted and also not detained as per GTU circular No.Gtu/Evaluation/July10/4564 dated 29th July 2010 will be given one last chance to complete their studies from the academic year 2020-21 onwards. Such students will be given chance to keep the term as per the remaining year(s) of study i.e. if a student has not cleared 2 semesters (1 year) he/she will be given 2 semesters (1 year) only for passing all the subjects of that course. No extra year(s) will be provided to pass the course.

Guidelines

1. The students whose studies are still pending will become regular from Academic year 2020-21 (Odd and Even terms) will have to study as per new syllabus of respective course and as per the equivalency defined by the University for that Course.
2. The students who have only backlogs in the subjects can give examination as per the syllabus they have studied. No equivalent subject will be defined for the same.
3. The students who will be detained or caught in unfair means in this special extension period will not be given any more extension.
4. The Re-enrollment fees of Rs 5000 (Rs Five thousand only) for this special extension is to be paid by students who desires to register.
5. During the extended period the student is not eligible for any ranking.
6. No students whose validity of the enrolment number has not yet expired as per Notification No. 1/2012 can cite this special extension arrangement as a precedence and ask for extension whenever it is due to him/her, in future.

Affiliated institutes will have to make all arrangements to communicate this special extension arrangement to all such students
