

YOUR PREFERRED MEMORY MAKER

Hello, I am Pat.

This got to be one the most exciting yet nerve wrecking time for both of you! So many things to consider – from venue to decorations to selecting your preferred Justice of Peace to guests invites. We understand that all these planning comes with a lot of personal preferences and also the kind of dream wedding you ever wanted.

I believe photography is about the emotions that the images evoke - tears, laughters or just plain nostalgia. You know ... Memories. Capturing these moments for my couples has always been a privilege. And I take it upon myself the responsibility for documenting the essence, the details and moments for you to hold onto.

“There are only 4 main things that will last after your wedding day.
Your significant other, your wedding bands, your memories and lastly, your photographs.”
