Monday & Tuesday Sushi Tinis Room One Brings New Excitement to Weekday Nightlife in Tsim Sha Tsui

7 July 2015, Hong Kong - Room One, the sleek lobby bar of The Mira Hong Kong, brings new excitement to a casual Monday or Tuesday night in Tsim Sha Tsui with an appealing offering of free-flowing sake-based martinis and unlimited, freshly made sushi served for 3 hours.

The perfect spot for people-watching, catch-up with friends, or an impromptu business meeting after office hours, Room One gives another reason to swing by designer hotel in the heart of Tsim Sha Tsui. Starting from July 7, on every Monday and Tuesday from 7pm till 10pm unlimited freshly made-to-order sushi bento boxes containing six varieties of sushi and seven types of perfectly shaken saketinis are served at just HK$288 per person (+10% service charge).

Among four tipsy 'tinis, Fukutini is a fruity mix of sake, peach puree and passion fruit syrup, while three types of sober 'tinis include Kyotini – an exotic combination of lemongrass and chili syrup, lime juice and fresh coconut water. Along with light and refreshing Japanese rice wine based drinks that will surely appeal to the feminine crowd, delicious sets of sushi from sweet shrimp nigiri to lobster maki roll are offered and the choice of sushi will change regularly.

Happy Hours at Room One Extended

After hour drinks in Tsim Sha Tsui are now even easier to be enjoyed by the crowd of professionals with two for one cocktails, beers, wines and champagne by the glass available from Tuesday to Saturday from 5pm till 9pm. Even better, on Sunday and Monday, the Happy Hour menu is available all day long, from 4pm till 1am. Sensuous décor, eclectic sounds and a cocktail menu which reads like an unput-down-able novel, including such creations as Green Magic (HK$108) a refreshing composition of tequila, fresh bitter melon, Midori melon liqueur, dash of Pernod, fresh lemon juice & agave syrup served with fresh cucumber crudités on the side, makes Room One the perfect happy hour hang-out.

Live Music by Freedom Forever

Until the end of August this summer intimate lobby bar of The Mira Hong Kong features international singer and songwriter from Canada, Freedom Forever, a long standing resident performer at the hotel who creates an inviting atmosphere and a warm mood by mixing sexy soulful house and singing an eclectic repertoire of classic hits and signature jazzy standards.

Boasting Jamaican-French Canadian roots with a mix of Asian heritage, the hypnotizing vocalist shared the stage with such international headliners as Nelly Furtado, Alicia Keys, John Legend and 50 Cent. In the recent year, the singer has been touring across South-East Asia performing in five-star hotels including the famous Bamboo Bar in Mandarin Oriental Bangkok.

Chic venue with cozy ambiance filled with the captivating vocals and soft beats by Freedom Forever make Room One the perfect setting for a memorable birthday celebration, after work gathering or romantic evening in one of the bar's cushy booths.
