NOTE FOR DOCUMENTATION

1. All entries in invoice/packing list must be in the English language
2. Do not use word 'SAMPLE (S)' as this will be confused with give-away
3. Each item should have a commercial value, including give-away and brochures
4. The phrase 'No Commercial Value' is not permitted
5. The final invoice value should be "CIF" in US Dollar Currency. No other declaration is acceptable and must state country of origin
6. Goods for Temporary Import Declaration and consumable products for Final Import Declaration should be packed separately and listed on a separate Invoice/Packing List to avoid any delay in customs clearance.
7. Full description of each item with:
  - I. Item name, model no.
  - II. Quantity, type, serial numbers, model numbers to be subscribed on individual item
  - III. Individual value
  - IV. Custom Tariff number or HS Code
  - V. Total C.I.F. value
  - VI. Country of Origin

PACKING

- Consumables and exhibits under Bank/Embassy Guarantee and ATA Carnet should be packed separately.
- Goods for final import, such as brochures and give-away items, must be packed separately.
- Exhibition goods need to be packed with quality packing material.
- Fragile items should be packed in additional wrapping, and the box should be marked "Fragile"
- Boxes should be stacked on the pallet properly
- All cases and crates must be clearly marked and numbered as per invoice / packing list

MARKING & LABELING

- Model number, serial number or any identification number of items should tally with the invoice / packing list for smooth import & re-export custom clearance. In case the identity of import items is not established at the time of re-export, custom will raise objection and re-export formalities will come on hold.

NOTE: For the convenience of quarantine inspection, please have IPPC inspection certificates affixed to shipments in an easily identifiable position. Also ensure that certificates are securely affixed or stamped; a sticker that falls off in transit will delay quarantine inspection.

INSURANCE

Insurance part will be looked after by exhibitor itself and shipment should be insured with Marine insurance covering transport to the exhibition, during the exhibition and the return of exhibits to domicile, including the period the exhibits are handled by Schenker India and also ensure that transport insurance is arranged for exhibits sold locally, since Schenker India Pvt Ltd will not be responsible for any damage / loss , delay or theft occurs.
