TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By entrusting your items to us, you are agreeing that you are satisfied with the condition of the items and that For the Love of Laundry's count inspection is accurate. The assignment of your items to For the Love of Laundry by yourself or an appointed person will be taken as your acceptance of our full terms and conditions.

COUNT AND INSPECTION

It is your responsibility to count the number of items that you hand over to us for cleaning. Before your items are handed to us, easily removed accessories and ornamental items should be detached. If they are not removed, we will exercise our discretion to remove them. There is no guarantee that we will discover all detachable items and will not be responsible for any missing detachable items not highlighted to us. You must also inspect the condition of the items that we return to you. In the event that you are unable to hand or receive your items to us personally, you may appoint a person to do so on your behalf.

CLEANING

In the absence of your specific instructions, items will be cleaned according to their care label instructions. We reserve the right to exercise our discretion when cleaning your items. Synthetic leather items are prone to bubbling and/or tearing after cleaning, particularly in areas exposed to frequent movement and friction. Leather, fur or suede clothing have inherent flaws. We will endeavour to highlight this to you prior to cleaning these items. However, the cleaning of such items may cause such flaws to become more apparent. We are not responsible if this occurs, whether or not we have highlighted these flaws to you. Curtains and sofa covers may have a probability of shrinkage after cleaning. We are unable to determine if this will happen or the extent of shrinkage should it happen. This is a natural reaction as certain fabrics are not pre-shrunk and we will not be liable for such situations as it is not within our control.

STAINS

There is no guarantee that stains can be removed. There is also no guarantee that we can discover all stains. We are not responsible for any stains that we do not discover and highlight to you. If we discover such stains we reserve the right not to clean the items until we get your consent. If we discover such stains, we may also for whatever reason, proceed to clean the items without your consent. Even if the stains are not removed completely, you will still have to pay the cleaning charges for the item.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

You are to report any missing or damaged items via email to help@fortheLoveoflaundry.com within five (5) calendar days from the time the items are handed back to you so we can endeavour to find or fix your missing or damaged items. Damage is limited to damage to accessories, ornamental items, buttons, shrinkage, discolouration, fading and tears whilst items are under our possession and control. Even if we agree to accept responsibility for the missing or damaged items, our liability will not exceed ten (10) times the rate charged for cleaning the item, whether or not this is reported to us within five (5) calendar days. The item, whether partially or completely damaged must be retained by us upon full settlement of claim unless otherwise agreed by For the Love of Laundry.

TERMS FOR DELIVERY AND COLLECTION

Our service fee for picking up your items and sending them back to you is S$8. This fee will be waived for orders S$50 and above. If you are on a corporate partnership programme, the delivery fee and terms may differ. Kindly refer to your HR department for more information. If you find it necessary to cancel or reschedule the time slot allocated, you must notify For the Love of Laundry no less than 24 hours before the agreed time. If we receive less than 24 hours' notice and we show up to collect or deliver your items, and are unable to reach you, you will be charged a transportation fee for the rescheduled delivery. We are not responsible or liable if we are for reasons beyond our control, unable to return your items or collect your items for cleaning within the specified time slot. In the event that we need to reschedule, we will notify you of the rescheduled date and time. If your items are not collected after thirty (30) days from our first call, we reserve the right to donate the items to a charity of our choice.

PAYMENT

Unless you have registered your credit card with us, terms of payment are on cash on delivery basis and items will only be released upon full payment.
