

Technical Assistant

We are a reputed blue-chip company looking for a result-oriented self-motivated individual to join our team for the above position

Job Summary

To perform electrical / mechanical maintenance and breakdown jobs of all company owned and customer owned assets within the Sales Department to ensure they are carried out in a timely and efficient manner so as to minimize the effect on plant productivity complying with the legal and safety standards.

Job Description

- ◆ Attend to maintenance activities throughout to ensure equipment availability for the efficient control and operation of the Customer.
- ◆ Achieve plant and equipment reliability levels by ensuring maintenance programs conforming to company policy and to manufacturer's standards
- ◆ Ensure that a safe and healthy work environment exists, by adhering to company Health, Safety & Environmental policies, to achieve full compliance with the relevant legislation.
- ◆ Minimize cost associated with maintenance activities by effective work practices and utilization of labour and material
- ◆ Ensure compliance with Permit To Work (PTW) system

Qualifications and Required Skills

Qualifications : Four /Three years Full time Apprenticeship in Mechanical/Electrical Engineering from a recognized Technical Institution

Skills : LPG related and other Equipment Maintenance, HSE exposure

Experience : Minimum of five years in maintenance of LPG related appliances or similar equipment in industry

Applications with detailed curriculum vitae including non-related referees should be sent within 06 working days of this advertisement.

O - 10130
C/O Sunday Observer
Lake House, Colombo 10.