The Great Gatsby's Home in West Egg

Families can talk much about owners and their performance from a social position, lifestyle, personality perspective. Tom and Daisy Buchanan live in East Egg and are new money, they have very large houses. And Nick lives in a very small house, not the two houses on the left and right of his house. Gatsby has a large house, unlike Buchanan, Gatsby has many parties where anyone can join. Everyone has their own house to explain their lifestyle, social position, personality.

The book called Jay Gatsby is called The Great Gatsby. The character I chose from this book is Jay Gatsby. Jay Gatsby is a very wealthy person living in a huge mansion. His house is in West Egg, "I borrowed 120,000 or 15,000 people in one season" (9). Jay Gatsby was born in Minnesota and has two very poor peasants' parents. His real name is James Gatz, but his best friend, Dan Cody, gave him the name of Jay Gatsby. Duncaudi also teaches Gatsby everything about wealth. - The true happiness of Kurt Vonnegut and Hans Weingartner at The Tidens of Titan The ultimate goal of many people living in The Eduakators is to achieve happiness. Unfortunately, many people try to achieve it in the wrong way. For example, in Titan's warning, Kurt

Vonnegut, Marachitz Stein thinks he is truly happy, but what he really does is to achieve his hedonism and seek for higher happiness It is to meet his shallow needs. Form
