MUNICH

- Frauenkirche – or the Church of Our Dear Lady, is the biggest church in the city. The enormous Gothic-style Cathedral was completed in 1488, with the domes crowning its towers in 1525 at 99 metres in height, were finally covered with peculiar green domes.
- Rathaus Glockenspiel – it chimes and re-enacts two stories from the 16th century to the amusement. It consists of 43 bells and 32 life-sized figures. The top half of the Glockenspiel tells the story of the marriage of the local Duke Wilhelm V to Renata of Lorraine. Second story: Schäfflertanz (the cooper's dance).

FÜSSEN

- Neuschwanstein Castle – Neuschwanstein, the name means “New Swan Castle,” is often referred to as the “Disney Castle,” the “Sleeping Beauty Castle” and the “Cinderella Castle” and well known as one of TOP 10 castles in the world. Surrounded by cliffs, a moat, and a charming little town, the castle appears untouched by time. It stands as an everlasting testament to the amazing wonders of King Ludwig II, who commissioned the building in 1868.

INNSBRUCK

- Golden Roof – or Goldenes Dachl is a landmark structure located in the Old Town (Altstadt) section of Innsbruck, Austria. It is considered the city's most famous symbol. Completed in 1500, the roof was decorated with 2,657 fire-gilded copper tiles for Emperor Maximilian I to mark his wedding to Bianca Maria Sforza. The Emperor and his wife used the balcony to observe festivals, tournaments, and other events that took place in the square below.
- The Hofkirche (Court Church) – The Court Church impresses with the 28 larger-than-life figures of the bronze-cast Black Statues, which guard the magnifi-cent tomb of Emperor Maximilian I. The 40 larger than life-sized statues have, however, never been completed and only 28 were finally brought into being. A further highlight in this church is the Ebert Organ of the Renaissance period.
