

MIKE S K LUI 呂世杰大律師

Call: 2006 (HK)

PROFILE

Mike has a broad civil commercial advisory and litigation practice. He appears at all levels of courts and tribunals, as counsel and amicus curiae on important issues of law.

In commercial litigation, he is often instructed in complex, high value cases involving contract claims, shareholders disputes, duties of directors, civil fraud, trust, injunction, insolvency and champerty issues. Familiar with securities law and regulation, he often acts for and advises listed companies and the Securities and Futures Commission.

In public law litigation, he has considerable experience in judicial reviews on matters of public significance. He has been appointed as Counsel for Commission of Inquiry, and often as legal adviser to statutory and disciplinary tribunals.

In tax litigation, he acts for the Revenue and taxpayers (including multinational corporations and high net worth individuals) in matters of profits tax and salaries tax, appearing often before the Board of Review and the Courts.

In employment litigation, he acts for employers and employees in a wide spectrum of disputes raising issues of defamation, discrimination (disability, sex, race and family status), confidentiality obligations, restrictive covenants, employee compensation and wrongful termination. He often acts for and advises the Equal Opportunities Commission.

In land litigation, he acts in matters of conveyancing, estate agency, New Territories land and Chinese customary law, tenancy, construction, building and planning. His clients include the Government, the Housing Authority and developers.
