

SMARAN

A tribute in the memory of Ustaad Zia Mohiuddin Dagar and Zia Fariduddin Dagar

At THE VALLEY SCHOOL KRISHNAMURTI FOUNDATION INDIA

On NOV 2nd, 3rd and 4th 2015

TIME - 6 am to 10.30 pm

VENUE - ART VILLAGE

The name of Dagers is associated with Dhrupad for ages. They trace their lineage to Swami Haridas, the Guru of Mia Tansen, a jewel in the court of Akbar.

In India gaining political independence, the Dagers lost the patronage of the erstwhile Maharajas. They did face the ordeal of survival. It was an ordeal for Dhrupad to survive. They still live on the edge, in austerity and penance. However, over the years they have created several students who today disseminate the rigour, beauty and the grandeur of this ancient and original form of Hindustani Classical music.

In memory of Ustad Fariduddin Dagar and Ustad Zia Mohiuddin Dagar a three day interactive dhrupad festival - SMARAN- has been organised. The prominent students of these ustads will share their knowledge and wisdom with fifty music students from all over India. There will be Lec-Dem, Workshops, concerts everyday.

This is a residential interactive programme to be hosted by The Valley School Krishnamurti Foundation India Bangalore.

Your good wishes, blessings and support will enable us to host this festival.
