

Exercice 1

Pour les phrases suivantes, remplacer l'élément souligné par un pronom personnel.

1. Put the bottle on the table.
2. Brian did not come yesterday.
3. Listen to James.
4. I sometimes speak to his wife.
5. He likes books.
6. I am going to phone the doctor.
7. She told her mother about the joke.
8. Are you interested in maths ?
9. I went shopping with Aunt Jane.
10. Mrs Hay is sitting here with her son.

Exercice 2

Remplacer les mots soulignés par des adjectifs possessifs.

1. John's bag is empty.
2. You can use the neighbours' phone.
3. Harry's wife heard everything.
4. We went to the headmaster's office.
5. Ann's sister lived in Alaska.
6. John and Mary's trip was very long.
7. And here is her Majesty's ship.
8. Lyn's hair is always clean.
9. I do not like George and Mary's friends.
10. Margaret's car is older than mine.

Exercice 3

Remplacer les mots soulignés par des pronoms possessifs.

1. She has taken Kate's copy-books.
2. He drove Dad's car.
3. This is Aunt Joan's purse.
4. Look at that singer's big teeth.
5. And this is our school.
6. They said their car was more convenient.
7. Why did you say it was your game ?
8. He is Uncle Tom's son.
9. These are the drinks of the supporters.
10. I told her she could use our trays.

Exercice 4

Transformer les phrases suivantes de manière à utiliser un génitif saxon.

1. Give me the English book of Mike.
2. This is the house of the headmaster.
3. I know the wife of the farmer well.
4. Did you hear the question of Phil ?
5. Look at the garden of the Cooks !
6. The library near the house of the Simpsons is very big.
7. It is the meal of your father.
8. Mr Bryan is taking the friend of his daughter too.
9. Was it the idea of your sister ?
10. Don't touch the dog of Mrs Tucker !

Dans les deux exercices qui suivent, remplacer les éléments soulignés par des pronoms personnels (sujet ou complément)

Exercice 5

1. Theresa likes going dancing with her friends.
2. Does Andrew often go out with Helen ?
3. Do you think Mummy will bring her books ?
4. Richard asked his uncle to help his sister ?
5. Grandma and grandpa phoned Mum and Dad.
6. The other lady was very nice.
7. The address is in London.
8. John went to the party with Jane.
9. Potatoes are good too.
10. Pupils never learn their lessons.

Exercice 6

1. Does Mary love children ?
2. I think you and me are not doing the right thing.
3. Jim says Richard does not know Bob and Jean.
4. We need matches.
5. Come and sit down with Maggy and me.
6. He has a present for his wife.
7. The weather was too cold for my parents.
8. A ball hit Mike on his head.
9. There was a rat near the dustbins.
10. Our car is expensive.

Exercice 7

Transformer les phrases suivantes de manière à utiliser un génitif saxon.

1. She always talks to the daughter of her friend.
2. This lady is the mother of Linda.
3. Mum is washing the sweater of Phil and the blouse of Margaret.
4. Mr and Mrs Nelson are the parents of John and Kate.
5. Which is the ring of Mummy ?
6. Where did you put the dictionary of James ?
7. We had a drink with the parents of Mike and the grandparents of Eileen.
8. The scarf of Libbie is very dirty.
9. Give me the balls of the players please.
10. He is wearing the trousers of his brother.

Exercice 8

Remplacer les éléments soulignés par un pronom ou un adjectif possessif.

1. Bob and Anna 's mother is a secretary.
2. Give a bone to William's dog!
3. Does Diana's sister speak Spanish?
4. This is my teacher and Mark's as well.
5. Is Bill's house green?
6. How old is Mary's son?
7. Mary and Jane's cars are blue.
8. Amanda's bike is very expensive!
9. My family's house is too small.
10. Brian's favourite sport is tennis.

Correction