HIGHLIGHT OF PHUKET AND CULTURAL SHOW
Description

This tour combines Phuket's sights with an easygoing overview of the island, including the charming local temple, the wonderful views from Promthep Cape, a Thai folklore show and the orchid farm at the Thai Village. You will start by visiting Promthep Cape, a rocky headland that forms the southernmost tip of the island. It stretches into the sea and offers panoramic views and a fine vista over the near-perfect half-moon bay of Nai Harn Beach. You will then travel a short distance to visit one of the island's most important temples: Wat Chalong (or Wat Chaiyatharam). The temple hall houses bronze statues of three famous monks, believed to possess supernatural powers. Over a century ago, a battle between two rival factions of Chinese laborers ended up at Wat Chalong, where the abbot, Luang Por Chaem, reconciled the warring parties. Another short drive will take you to the Phuket Orchid Garden and the Thai Village. After walking through the small orchid farm, you will watch the traditional show at the Thai Village. It features cultural performances illustrating the local way of life with folk dances, which are unique to Phuket and the South. Finally, you will visit a reputable store to shop for souvenirs, local products, handicrafts, pearls or semiprecious stones before returning to the port.

Please Note: Appropriate clothing is recommended to enter temples and places of worship; when visiting the temple shoes should be removed and socks should be worn; shoulders and legs should be covered when visiting the temple. Don't forget to bring mosquitoes repellent. Space is limited, so please reserve early. Excursion departure in the afternoon.

PHUKET RELIGION AND CULTURAL HERITAGE
Description

This tour will leave you in awe with the contrast between the island's extraordinary Chinese-style shrines and traditional Thai temples. You will visit Wat Jui Tui, a distinctive Chinese shrine that attracts a steady stream of devotees, anxious to have their fortunes read. You will see the 'half-buried' Buddha (Phra Pud) in the floor of the Wat Phra Thong Temple. Next you will drive along the beautiful western coast of Phuket, passing Kamala, Surin, Patong, Kata and Karon beaches before arriving at the southernmost tip of the island, Promthep Cape. Here you will have the chance to admire the stunning views and take photographs. The spot offers a fine view over the nearby islands, the beautiful Nai Harn Beach and the windmill. Following this you will visit the Chalong Temple, the most famous on Phuket Island. The temple hall houses bronze statues of three monks - Luang Por Chaem, Luang Por Gluam and Luang Por Chuang - honoured by the inhabitants of Phuket. The Thais believe that this temple protects the island from harm. Your next stop will be at a Thai restaurant for a fantastic lunch. Finally, you will have the chance to shop for local handicrafts, pewter, woodcarvings, Thai silk and semiprecious stones.

Please note: Please wear comfortable walking shoes; sunhats are recommended. Appropriate clothing is necessary to enter inside temples and places of worship. When visiting the temple, shoes should be removed and socks are recommended. Shoulders and legs should be covered when visiting the temple. Do not forget to bring mosquito repellent. The order of the itinerary may vary. Spaces are limited, so please reserve early.

JAMES BOND ISLAND AND RANG YAI ISLAND
Description

This exciting full-day tour will enable you to explore some of Phang Nga Bay's most fantastic scenery. You will board the motorized speed boat at Royal Phuket Marina and begin to navigate the mangroves and canals of Phang Nga, cruising past spectacular outcrops of limestone rocks and caves making your way towards James Bond Island' (or Khao Ping Kan). This breathtakingly beautiful island became famous after it was used as a shooting location for the James Bond film, 'The Man with the Golden Gun'. You will be able to admire the amazing neighbouring Nail Island, before continuing to Panyi Island to visit a 150 year-old fishing village. Here you will have the chance to converse with the locals and to visit the island's mosque with its towering minaret, along with the stalls and shops built entirely on stilts high above the sea. Later on, you will take a speed boat transfer to Rang Yai Island where you will enjoy a delicious lunch. After lunch you will have the opportunity to relax on the beach or swim. Finally a boat ride will bring you back to Royal Phuket Marina to meet your transfer back to the ship.

Please note: Please wear comfortable walking shoes and casual clothing. Do not forget your swimming costume, towel, sun-glasses and plenty of sun lotion. This tour is not recommended for guests who suffer from seasickness or for those with mobility problems. A stop to use the toilet facilities will be made at the Boat Lagoon pier upon arrival. Do not forget to bring mosquito repellent. Spaces are limited, so please reserve early

LANDSCAPES, SEA PANWA CANOE

Description

After leaving the pier your bus will drive you to the bay of Por, where you will take a typical boat and explore some of Phang Nga Bay's most fantastic scenery, such as unique islets, limestone rocks and mangroves. Your cruise will bring you to Panak Island where you will experience the real adventure of canoeing lead by a guide. You will also have the opportunity to swim, admiring amazing landscapes built up of wonderful caves and naturally created stalactites and stalagmites. A Thai buffet lunch will be served onboard the boat, whilst sailing back to land. Upon arriving at the pier at the bay of Por, transfer to Gem Gallery for shopping. Afterwards, transfer back to the ship.

Please note: For safety reasons, the visit of the caves depends on the sea level. Please wear comfortable shoes and clothing: shorts, swimwear, hat, sunglasses, towels, suntan lotion and mosquito repellent are recommended. Please also bring a change of clothing. The capacity of the canoes is 2 people. Water-resistant bags are provided for cameras. The caves are low at certain points, therefore it is necessary to lie down on the canoe on certain occasions. Participants should be in very good physical health and be able to swim. The presence of many bats inside the caves may result in a foul smell. This tour is not recommended for guests who suffer from seasickness, guests with back problems or for those with mobility problems.

Langkawi
TRADITIONAL HERITAGE OF LANGKAWI
Description

Pass by scenic paddy fields witnessing groups of buffaloes resting in their muddy ponds as you venture past quaint Malay villages (kampung'), scattered all over the island, giving you a true insight into the landscapes of Langkawi. Visit Laman Padi, the Rice Garden, one of Langkawi's main ecotourism attractions, where visitors can view all aspects of rice cultivation, the oldest economic activity in Malaysia. Chart its history up until recent developments whilst viewing exhibits at the Museum. Arrive at the Craft Cultural Complex, a major attraction for tourists visiting the island of Langkawi. This magnificent complex is dedicated solely to Malaysian handicrafts. Here, you will find an exclusive assortment of craftwork items ranging from forest-based products, batik fabrics, ceramics and metal artifacts, to beautiful art objects, wood products, baskets, rattanbased products and costume jewellery. Also housed inside this complex, are two galleries: a heritage museum that showcases a number of handicrafts and musical instruments representing the various Malaysian ethnic groups and the Wedding Gallery showcasing the colourful traditional wedding costumes worn by the various communities of multi-ethnic Malaysia. You will then depart towards Eagle Square. The Eagle's Park is the last stop on our excursion: a monumental sculpture embracing the seafront of Kuah.

Please note: The order of the itinerary may vary. Spaces are limited, so please reserve early.

Langkawi ISLAND OVERVIEW

Description

Langkawi is a beautiful tropical island paradise, renowned as the Isle of Legends'. Lifestyles have changed since it became a duty free port on 1st January 1987, however it has still managed to retain its own identity throughout the ages. It is still very much land of kampungs (villages), beaches, rice fields, legends and friendly people with intriguing lifestyles. During the tour you will have the chance to visit a functioning rubber estate where you will get a close-up demonstration of Rubber Tapping. The Rubber Tapper will show you how his skilful cuts make the rubber tree bleed latex. Next stop is the Mausoleum of the Martyred Princess. The much talked about legend concerns Mashuri, a tragic young maid who lived on this island. When her husband was called away to the army, she was wrongly accused of adultery by a jealous wife and was subsequently sentenced to death. Stabbed with a sacred sword, she is said to have bled white blood, proof too late of her innocence. With her dying breath, she cursed the island, proclaiming Langkawi shall not prosper for seven generations to come!". The final stops on your excursion will be at the Eagle's Park: a monumental sculpture embracing the seafront of Kuah and at a Handicraft Studio where you will have the opportunity to purchase some souvenirs of your time in Langkawi.

This tour is not recommended for guests with mobility problems. Space is limited, so please reserve early. The order of visits may vary. Please note: The means of transportation will be of varied sizes. Spaces are limited, so please reserve early.

TROPICAL ISLAND BIRD WATCHING

Description

Langkawi is home to approximately 200 species of bird, of which about one third are migrants. These birds migrate here during winter between the months of November to April. Langkawi has a rich diversity of ecosystems and habitat types. This includes lowland broadleaf rainforest, mangrove forest, reed beds, rice paddies, orchards, scrublands and mudflats. This ensures a correspondingly rich diversity in birdlife on the island. During this 5 hour trip it may be possible to spot around 20–30 species of the 200+ species of bird in the jungle, rice fields or near by the rivers. The guide will firstly take you up to the Gunung Raya (the highest mountain of the island) in order to try to spot the mountain birds (possibly the Great Hornbill). The guide will know exactly where to bring you for the best possibility of viewing these interesting species. Continue on to the lowlands and paddy fields in order to catch a few more before returning to the ship. This tour is suited to everyone with an interest in bird watching and nature lovers.

Please note: Kindly consider that migratory birds are seasonal. We recommend that you wear long or short trousers, a T-shirt, sandals and a hat or cap. Binoculars are recommended for this tour. A list of birds will be given. Bird watching cannot be guaranteed as it is a work of nature. Participants must be fit as a fair amount of walking is required for this tour. Only an English-speaking nature guide will be provided on this excursion and no commentary will be given during the journey to and from ship. Tour includes: Bottled water / Binoculars if needed. Participants under the age of 12 and participants over the age of 65 are not advised to participate in this tour. Spaces are limited, so please reserve early. Please be advised that not all of the tour buses will have air conditioning.

SENTOSA AND THE CITY

Description

This tour will begin with a short bus and monorail ride from the mainland to Sentosa Island. On arrival you will ascend the Sky Tower, Asia's tallest observation tower that stands at a height of 131 metres above sea level. Here you can admire the panoramic views across Singapore and Southern Island. After familiarising yourself with the island from the air, you'll explore Sentosa on foot as well. The next stop on your tour will be Little India where you'll be dazzled by the colourful streets and the bustling life that permeates every nook and cranny of the district. Little India is the focal point of the Indian community and you'll find yourself being beckoned by the quarter's spice-scented streets, where your senses will be filled with a multitude of colours and sounds. As you walk past the shophouses you'll discover an array of Indian silk, brassware and carvings. Leaving Little India behind, your next stop will be the Botanical Gardens, a wonderful example of the splendid parks on this tropical island. The thousands of species of plants, among them some rare examples, reflect the variety and richness of the world's flora. The National Orchid Garden located within the Gardens boasts the world's largest orchid collection, with 60,000 orchid plants displayed in a natural setting. Finally, with fond memories of your time in Singapore, you'll return to the ship.

Please note: If the Sky Tower is closed due to bad weather, you will visit the Merlion Statue. This excursion is reserved for guests who do not disembark in Singapore

ESSENCE OF SINGAPORE

Description

The city-state of Singapore has been called Instant Asia for its microcosm of Asia's many cultures. Your tour offers a fascinating glimpse at Singapore's unique fusion of three distinctive cultures Chinese, Malay and Indian. Enjoy and experience the heritage of Singapore during this informative outing. Depart the port and begin your sightseeing in Chinatown, where sights and sounds are reminiscent of Singapore in the 1960s and 1970s. Take a look at the quaint shops and visit the oldest Hindu temple in Singapore, the magnificent Sri Mariamman Temple. Move on to Little India where you will have time for a stroll and browse in the many shops, selling spices, colorful saris, glittering jewelry, fresh flowers and other exotic items. Hop on to the fun part of your tour in a trishaw. Your trishaw ride will bring you comfortably through the narrow lanes of Arab Street, passing the resplendent Sultan Mosque. Built in 1928, it is a prominent landmark in this quarter. The duration of your trishaw ride is about 20-30 minutes. Continue your tour to The Legendary Raffles Hotel. Named after the British founder of modern-day Singapore, Sir Stamford Raffles, this property is one of the world's finest and most famous hotels. The high ceilings and colonial architecture reflect the era of British rule from 1819 to 1963. Years of tender, loving care and pride of purpose have kept this landmark a must-see for any visitor to Singapore. Experience the legendary Singapore Sling, invented in 1915 right here in the Long Bar at Raffles Proceed to Raffles Landing Site. The site where Thomas Stamford Raffles is believed to have first landed in Singapore in 1819 and where he embarked on a vision to transform the little fishing village into an important trading center of the East. An imposing statue of Raffles commemorates the site. Finally, enjoy a ride on one of these colorful boats down the Singapore River. In Raffles' days, the bumboats carried goods. Today, they are a popular way to experience a kaleidoscope of historic river and harbor images, including the godown warehouses, the shophouses, the six bridges built by the British and the gracious buildings of the old waterfront set against the towering skyline of the new business district. Disembark your riverboat at picturesque Clarke Quay and conclude this delightful outing with the drive back to the port.

Space is limited, so please reserve early. The order of the itinerary may vary. Space are limited, so please reserve early. Wheelchair bound guests who are unable to walk are unable to participate on the riverboat cruise and the trishaw ride. Bumboat has no A/C and
