

Above is the default page for our application.

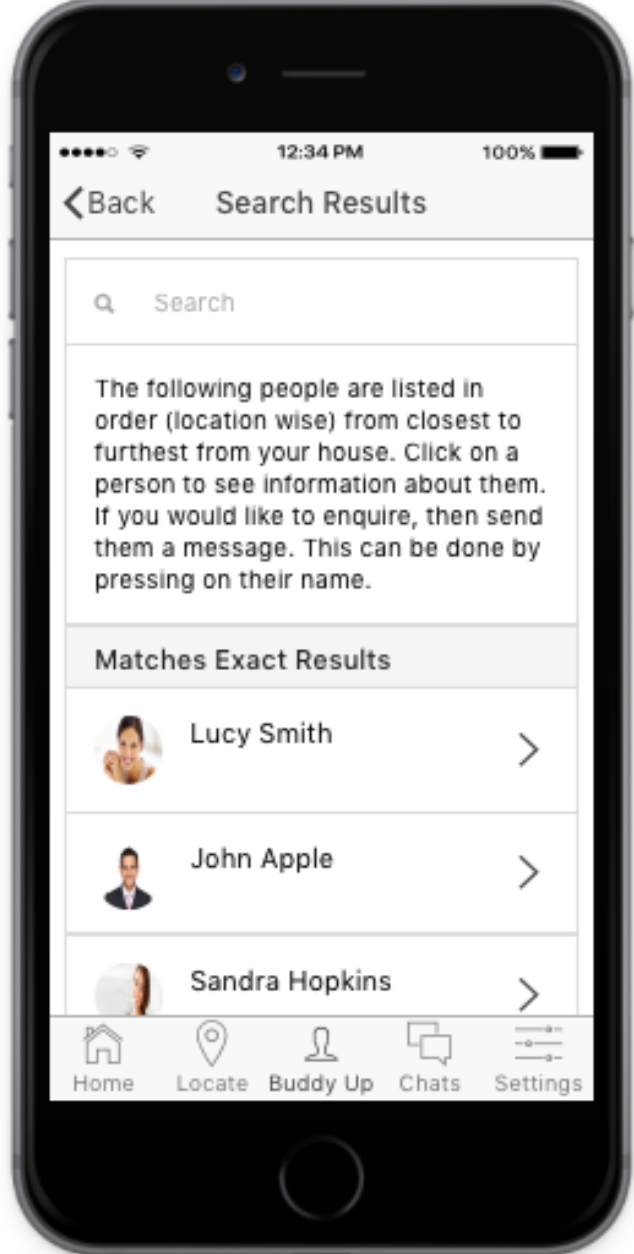

Buddy Up is the screen where you meet all of your future carpool buddies.

Above is the screen where a live tracking, i'm late and emergency button can be seen. This is visible at all times to all people involved in the carpool.

Above is the chat screen where previous texts can be read and new ones can be composed.

To the left is the screen where all potential carpool buddies can be viewed.