FOREWORD

The Bible says that we overcome the enemy by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony (ref.: Revelation 12:11). Testimonies are powerful because they speak of the unchanging faithfulness of our Lord Jesus Christ in our lives.

In this book, Voice, you will find a compilation of praise reports from individuals who have been transformed by the gospel. I love to read these precious stories that our church receives regularly, which I personally find to be a source of encouragement to me. I pray that as you read these testimonies, you will be blessed as well.

If you are trusting God for a breakthrough, know that my leaders and I are standing in faith with you. As you turn the pages of this book and behold the wonderful works of our loving Saviour, I pray that faith will spring forth in your heart and cause you to boldly receive your miracle. And when you do, I encourage you to write in to us and give voice to His goodness in your own life.

Be greatly blessed!

FROM BARRENNESS TO FRUITFULNESS

I was pregnant a month after my wedding in March 2009, but the foetus died before the sixth week and I had to go for a dilation and curettage (D&C) procedure to remove the deceased foetus. I became pregnant two more times in April and October 2010 and experienced similar miscarriages. Each time, I had to go through the dreaded D&C procedure.

After three D&C procedures within the span of 18 months, I continued to bleed for five months. The miscarriages were emotionally and physically trying for me and my husband. But we thank God for the godly counsel and enormous support from the pastors in church. They never lost hope and continued to stand in faith with us. My husband and I continued to rest in and trust the Lord for restoration, clinging on to God's promise of fruitfulness in Isaiah 54.

Pregnant for the fourth time in January 2012, I miscarried again. By then, my gynaecologist was at a loss, having exhausted all tests and procedures known to her.

Subsequently, I was referred to a rheumatologist with a special interest in reproductive immunology, and I was placed on a treatment that gave us a glimmer of hope. Yet our trust was ultimately in the Lord as we understood that science and medicine are limited.

I became pregnant a fifth time in September 2012. But it was found to be an ectopic pregnancy, a life-threatening condition where the embryo grows outside the womb, most often in the fallopian tube. We didn't know what else to do but trust the Lord that all things would turn out well. Despite treatment, my fallopian tube ruptured and the surgeon had to remove it during an emergency operation to save my life.

OUR TRUST WAS ULTIMATELY IN THE
LORD AS WE UNDERSTOOD THAT SCIENCE AND MEDICINE ARE LIMITED.

The odds of me becoming a mother were now stacked even higher against me, but I knew our God is a God of all possibilities. Surely “He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children.” (Psalm 113:9a, KJV) Some weeks later, Pastor Prince shared that 2013 was the year of the key of David, of open doors and open wombs. At the end of the service, Pastor Prince asked those who were believing God for a baby to stand up and receive the blessing, especially women who had experienced multiple miscarriages. My husband and I boldly received the childbearing promises proclaimed.

I KNEW OUR GOD IS A GOD OF ALL POSSIBILITIES.

I was led by God to serve in the children’s ministry to take care of young children under the age of two and embrace motherhood by faith. I also served in the Chinese Ministry, and encountered a new believer who had been trying for a baby for several years. In the natural, I should have been disqualified to pray for her. But I remembered Pastor Prince's sermon Healing Flows When Grace Is Exalted, where he shared that by faith, Abraham prayed for Abimelech to bear children despite Abraham being childless. I knew that God was setting me up for a big breakthrough, so I just boldly prayed for the new believer to conceive.

In July 2013, I conceived naturally for the sixth time in four years. At week six, I experienced spotting. Fear began to creep into my heart, and bad thoughts of the previous miscarriages began to saturate my mind. I was so distressed, and suicidal thoughts kept playing in my mind. I couldn't sleep, had panic attacks and would wake up more than 10 times every night, crying and walking around the bedroom.

One night, Pastor Christina Wee and two sisters from church came to my house to pray and encourage me to continue to walk by faith and exercise my authority in Christ. Pastor Christina also sang worship songs and gradually, the depression lifted and I got better.

Every day, I confessed that I would not miscarry. I also confessed Luke 2:40 over my baby: “And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.”

At week 24 of my pregnancy, I experienced excruciating pain at the sides of my stomach, and the doctors were convinced that I would deliver the baby prematurely. I rejected the bad report and kept on confessing that I would carry the baby to full term.

Finally, at week 38, my son was born healthy and strong. The Word of God is so living and powerful that I witnessed Luke 2:40 being manifested in his life.

My son had no allergies or jaundice at birth, and he never got unwell after each vaccination. He rolled over for the first time when he was three months and 22 days old. At four months, he weighed over 8kg and according to the clinical chart, he was in the 97th percentile for his height and weight!

Thank you, Pastor Prince, for preaching the gospel, and helping us to grow in faith as we hear the preaching of the Word. Your ministry has transformed our lives radically!

HUSBAND FREED FROM SCHIZOPHRENIA

After we got married, my husband became abusive. He would always accuse me of being unfaithful and would often beat me up. I used to go to work with bruises and a black eye. I was hospitalised a few times because he broke my nose or toe, and I lost a child from the beatings.

Even though we loved each other very much, things just went from bad to worse. I did not know why he behaved in that manner until he was diagnosed with schizophrenia, a brain disorder that made him hallucinate and become highly suspicious of others.

By that time, we had accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and Saviour, and we were going to church every Sunday. The doctor put my husband on medication to numb his brain, but he did not like it because it made him slow. He stopped his medication and I had to live with his abusive behaviour.

Then, we started attending New Creation Church and found the teachings very uplifting. After listening to Pastor Prince's sermons week after week, I realised that my husband gradually became less abusive.

Today, my husband is free from the symptoms of schizophrenia. Jesus has restored to me the man I fell in love with. My husband is now very, very loving and gentle to me.

Against all odds, Pastor Prince's sermons on God's everlasting grace that lifts up Jesus in our lives have restored our marriage. We have been married for 28 years, and are still going strong. God has also blessed our six children who are excelling in their studies, and we are financially blessed too.

Thank you, Pastor Prince, for preaching the gospel of grace.

AT-RISK FOETUS BORN HEALTHY, WHOLE AND STRONG

When I was around 11 weeks pregnant, my gynaecologist discovered through an ultrasound scan that my baby had a worrying swelling from an unusually high measurement of fluid behind the neck. She explained that the normal measurement of the swelling should be less than 1.5mm, but my baby's measurement was over 3mm. This meant that my baby might have a high risk of a chromosomal abnormality such as Down syndrome or a congenital heart defect. A second scan the next day revealed that the swelling had spread to my baby's abdomen. Another gynaecologist was even invited to make yet another ultrasound scan, and the diagnosis remained the same.

My husband and I were asked to consider if we would like to go for further tests or terminate the pregnancy. Our gynaecologist's preference seemed to be for the latter. It was a difficult weekend. When Monday came, we decided to go for the chromosomal abnormality test. By then, my baby's head, abdomen and limbs were all swollen.

As we waited for the test result, I started writing down healing verses from the Bible and meditating on the truth in Psalm 139 that the Lord is my baby's creator. Thank God for Pastor Prince's teaching on the Holy Communion. It was the one "medicine" that I could take countless times without side effects. Whenever I got worried or wished I could do something, I would partake of the Holy Communion and speak over my baby. Surprisingly, that helped me to let go and rest. Sitting under Pastor Prince's ministry over the years has also assured me that the Lord is not only able to perform a miracle for my child, He is more than willing to do so.

WHENEVER I GOT WORRIED OR WISHED I COULD DO SOMETHING, I WOULD PARTAKE OF THE HOLY COMMUNION.

On New Year's Eve, my gynaecologist informed us that the chromosomal abnormality test turned out fine. However, she said that my child could still have a congenital heart defect, which was no less severe.

After the New Year, we went for a review and my gynaecologist was shocked to find that the swelling had subsided tremendously. She performed an extra-long ultrasound scan, flipped through her notes multiple times, then told us that she would have no objections if we wanted to continue with the pregnancy.

And so we did. By the fifth month of my pregnancy, all the swelling had disappeared. On 30 June 2016, our son was born healthy, whole and strong. He hit his physical development milestones earlier than his older brother. He sat up before he was six months, pulled himself up at seven months, started walking at 10 months, and was literally running even before he was a year old. A cardiac specialist also confirmed that his heart is perfectly formed. Our son is a living, walking, drooling, super-adorable testimony of Jesus' incredible power and unimaginable love for our family. All praise, glory and thanks to our Lord Jesus.

SUPERNATURALLY HEALED OF ECZEMA

I suffered from eczema on my right hand for 10 years. I visited doctors and dermatologists, and even underwent a series of tests at the National Skin Centre. However, the doctors could not explain why the eczema was only found on my right hand and not on the other parts of my body. They said it was an incurable condition which could only be managed by applying moisturisers and steroids. I bought numerous skincare products, but to no avail.

The eczema on my hand was bad. It was a vicious cycle that most people suffering from eczema would know: The area would itch, I would scratch, and the scratching would cause bleeding and dry skin, and the area would itch again.

However, after attending New Creation Church for three years and partaking of the Holy Communion every week, my eczema got better and better. Though it would still flare up sometimes, I continued to believe that by Jesus' stripes, I am healed. On 28 January 2014, I was prompted by the Holy Spirit to create a photo album to chronicle God's healing of my eczema.

At times, I didn't take any pictures because my skin did not seem to improve and I was discouraged. Nevertheless, God is faithful to our prayers even when we are disheartened. His healing is not dependent on our fragile faithfulness, but on His unfailing love and grace.

OUR PRAYERS EVEN

As of 18 July 2016, I have not applied any moisturiser or steroid cream, and it has been two years since I last used these products. Today, the skin on my right hand looks as good as new, and there is no sign of eczema. A good friend who knew of my condition remarked that the skin on my right hand looks as good as that on my left hand. I believe that Jesus has healed me. Hallelujah!

AS JESUS IS WITHOUT ANY BLOCKED ARTERIES, SO AM I

At the beginning of 2014, I made two visits to the accident and emergency unit, and was admitted once, due to fainting episodes accompanied by fits.

The neurology team did a thorough check on my brain, but could not find anything wrong. Finally, I was referred to a cardiologist who scheduled me for a computed tomography angiography on 3 April 2014.

The next day, the result was out. I was informed that my major artery had a significant 90 per cent blockage. I was then asked to go for a procedure four days later to insert a stent in my artery.

Despite the negative report, my faith in Jesus never wavered. Two days before my operation, on 6 April, I started serving in church at one of our service venues. There, I found a wonderful team of volunteers, and I got to bless, and be blessed by the congregation there.

At the end of the service, my wife and I got a leader to pray for me, and by faith we agreed that no stent would be required in my body.

On the day of the operation, a senior consultant who reviewed my case explained that the fits were due to an insufficient supply of blood to the heart.

He told me that he would reconfirm the extent of the blockage in my artery before implementing the stent. During the whole time, I kept declaring that as Jesus is without any blocked arteries, so am I (ref.: 1 John 4:17).

To the consultant's surprise, he did not find the significant blockage reported earlier. He even conducted the same angiography procedure a few times to confirm the results, as well as a blood pressure flow test.

He then discussed my case with another surgeon and both confirmed there was no need to insert the stent. Later, as he spoke to my wife, he said it was a miracle.

Later, the nurse asked me what I did and I told her that I only prayed to Jesus. God is a good God. How mighty is He!

BABY'S HOLE IN THE HEART MIRACULOUSLY CLOSED

The year 2013 was very tough for me and my wife. On the second day of our baby girl Tricia's birth, a heart murmur was discovered and she was subsequently diagnosed with two conditions—a hole in the heart and an extra blood vessel between the two major arteries of the heart.

Her second scan a week later made everything even grimmer. Her hole was categorised as an ostium primum atrial septal defect which the doctors said was a complicated defect.

A total of four cardiologists told us that this type of hole would not heal on its own as there are no surrounding tissues that could grow and cover up the hole. All agreed that an open heart surgery would be inevitable and they recommended to have it done when Tricia was around two years old.

We were devastated when we heard this. However, we still believed in God and prayed that He would heal her. We held on to Isaiah 53 and confessed that our baby was healed by our Lord Jesus' stripes.

WE HELD ON TO ISAIAH 53 AND CONFESSED THAT OUR BABY WAS HEALED BY OUR LORD JESUS' STRIPES.

A subsequent check-up brought more bad news. The hole in her heart had doubled in size, and the resulting abnormal blood flow was causing the right side of her heart to become bigger than the left.

On 26 April 2015, my family went to church together at the Marina Bay Sands Ballrooms service venue. Towards the end of the service, Pastor Prince shared two testimonies on healing and prayed for the congregation. We remember clearly that he mentioned that “new cells will grow”. He also encouraged us to meditate on the words: As Jesus is, so are we in this world (ref.: 1 John 4:17).

It was inspiring and gave us new faith and hope in our Lord. After that, we constantly prayed and reminded ourselves that just as our Lord Jesus Christ is without a hole in His heart, so is our baby.

A few weeks later, on 15 May, we brought our baby for her regular check-up which was very important as it would determine whether she should undergo the open-heart surgery that year. An initial check using the stethoscope did not give hope as there was still an additional sound.

The cardiologist then proceeded to do an echocardiogram (a test to check how well the heart's chambers and valves are working) which took longer than usual. Finally, when he was done, the cardiologist looked up and said, "The hole has closed." God did it!

AS OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST IS WITHOUT A HOLE IN HIS HEART,
SO IS OUR BABY.

Our daughter no longer needed open-heart surgery. Though we were informed that the extra blood vessel in Tricia's heart still remained, it did not impact her health. She could still do normal activities and participate in sports. Praise the Lord for His amazing grace!

LUKE 1:37

HEALED OF INCURABLE NEUROMUSCULAR DISEASE

I was born into a Christian family some 50 years ago, but never knew what a personal relationship with Jesus meant. Life was a constant struggle of being good and doing good, and maintaining a score card with God. I believed I had to earn God's love and forgiveness. It was exhausting.

In 2013, a close friend invited me and my husband to New Creation Church. We were reluctant because our Christian friends had warned us about the church, but we still went. We were in for a surprise!

As we sat through Pastor Prince's sermon, something happened within our hardened hearts and stiff necks. We went home hungry to read the many Bible verses Pastor

Prince had expounded on, and for the first time, God's Word came alive to us. The more we heard Pastor Prince's sermons, the more we read our Bibles and the more our faith grew. Finally, we made New Creation Church our home church.

In September 2013, I was diagnosed with myasthenia gravis (a chronic autoimmune disorder characterised by muscular weakness). It started with weak eyelids, and I couldn't open my eyes fully. This made me look as if I was drunk or worse still, doped up on drugs. I was told that in the advanced stages, I could lose my ability to walk and eventually, not be able to swallow.

An eye specialist and two neurosurgeons confirmed the diagnosis. There is no known cure, and I was told that they could only help delay its progression and manage the symptoms with medication for life. I cried and found it hard to trust God for healing.

However, my husband and I continued to listen to Pastor Prince's sermons in church and while commuting to work every day.

My husband would sit me down every night to pray for healing, and we would partake of the Holy Communion together. In spite of my fears, I found great comfort each time we partook of the Holy Communion. Some days, I had no words to pray, and my husband would encourage me to repeat after him, giving thanks to God for the priceless and powerful sacrifice of Jesus at Calvary. We claimed God's promises in Psalm 23 that we would have no lack, and that we would lead healthy and fruitful lives.

IN SPITE OF MY FEARS, I FOUND GREAT COMFORT EACH TIME WE PARTOOK OF

In October 2013, I was taken off all my medication two days before my appointment with the neurosurgeon so that he could run further tests to determine my treatment plan. To our surprise, the neurosurgeon noticed that my droopy eyelids were not as severe. He next asked me to stand so he could check my muscle strength. Then looking perplexed, he asked if I had indeed stopped taking the medication. When I said yes, he commented that without medication for more than 24 hours, it was impossible that my eyelids were not drooping. So, he cancelled the further tests that were to be conducted and confirmed that there were no symptoms of myasthenia gravis.

I was overjoyed and declared that I was healed by Christ Jesus! That was the last time I needed to see a doctor for myasthenia gravis. All glory to God! My husband and I truly wish to thank Pastor Prince and the pastors at New Creation Church for opening our eyes and ears to the wonderful gospel of grace.

TWENTY-YEAR SMOKING ADDICTION GONE!

I have been a Christian since 2008. When I just got born again, I was so in love with Jesus. However, gradually, I felt that I was not doing enough for God. I also had a detestable addiction to smoking for 20 years.

Back then, I was serving in the church choir, and every time before and after my choir practice, I would hide outside the church to smoke. I felt like a hypocrite. I tried to quit smoking through nicotine patches, medication and my “iron will”. But the more I tried to quit, the more I had the desire to smoke! Gradually, going to church became a duty, and I would skip church in exchange for sleep.

I knew this wasn't how I felt when I first got born again, so I prayed that God would lead me to fall in love with Him again. Then, a friend invited me to New Creation Church. During worship, I felt God's presence and love so strongly. And my prayer was answered when I heard Pastor Prince preach—I fell in love with Jesus all over again.

Even though I was already a Christian who had read the Bible, I did not fully understand it until Pastor Prince unveiled God's truth and love from the Scriptures.

Going to church became a joy and His Word became a necessity for me, like food. Week after week, I grew in the revelation of God's great love for me. And as encouraged by Pastor Prince in his messages, I would confess that I am the righteousness of God in Christ even when I was smoking.

At first, I felt really stupid and hypocritical, but I continued confessing and asking God to take away all my desire to smoke. Over time, I grew to hate the taste and smell of cigarettes. I would smoke halfway and stop because it tasted funny. God had taken away all my desire to smoke!

It has been over five years now since I stopped smoking. Praise God for truly all glory belongs to Him!

CIGARETTE CRAVING GONE WITHIN A WEEK

I was addicted to nicotine and had tried to quit the addiction so many times until I lost count. Each time, I would only find myself reaching out for more and more. I often felt guilty for succumbing to temptation and for hiding this from my family.

At that time, I had been attending services regularly at New Creation Church for four months and had just received Jesus as my Saviour. During one Sunday service, Pastor Prince shared about overcoming addictions like smoking. I was very excited when I heard that and was anxiously waiting for Pastor Prince to tell us the method.

Then he said, "Every time before you light up a cigarette, just declare: 'Jesus is my righteousness.'"

Honestly, when I heard that, my first response was: “Is that all? Really?”

I mean, I had tried so many means and numerous times to quit, but it was just so difficult. Was it really that easy?

One day, I decided to just do it. I declared out loud, “Jesus is my righteousness.” I was shocked—within the next few days, I found myself throwing away the cigarettes after a few puffs. Within a week, all my cravings were gone and I stopped smoking completely!

I have learnt that it doesn't matter even if you are a new believer. Once you receive Jesus as your Saviour and believe in faith that Jesus is your righteousness, your blessings will surely come. When you stop trying to achieve through your own efforts and rest in God, what you are believing God for will come to pass.

Thank you so much, Pastor Prince, for all your teachings! Thank you for letting me know that Daddy God loves me, and I have been forgiven of all my sins because Jesus has paid for them at the cross. More importantly, as a believer, I can look forward to my journey with Daddy God for the rest of my life.

DESIRE TO WATCH PORNOGRAPHY DISAPPEARED

I started watching pornography at an early age out of curiosity. I actually played a video accidentally and when I saw pornography, I became addicted.

Every time when my guardian or parents were away, I would watch pornography secretly. There was a time when my friends and I would go to someone's house just to watch it together.

As I grew older, it became a routine for me, and it also led to masturbation. From primary school all the way till I started working, I would indulge in pornography to satisfy my sexual urges. It was a part of my life and I never thought that this desire could vanish with a snap.

While working in Singapore, I was invited to visit New Creation Church in October 2017, and I just kept attending after that. Around two months later, I realised that I had not watched any pornography, and I did not even know how the desire disappeared. It has been almost a year and the addiction is still gone.

TWO MONTHS LATER, I REALISED THAT I HAD NOT WATCHED ANY PORNOGRAPHY,
AND I DID NOT EVEN KNOW HOW THE DESIRE DISAPPEARED.

I still regularly watch Pastor Prince's sermon videos and they inspire me every day to be a better person. It is never too late with Jesus Christ.

Thank you, Pastor Prince.

NO LONGER BOUND BY FEAR, SEXUAL ADDICTION AND PORNOGRAPHY

I was once bound by fear and sexual addiction. Whenever I was under pressure or in fear, I would watch pornographic videos to numb myself. I thought that it was my fate even after I was born again.

But after I heard the preaching of Pastor Joseph Prince in 2013 and read his books, Destined To Reign, Unmerited Favor and Grace Revolution, my heart was deeply touched by the love of our beautiful Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The testimonies in the books also greatly encouraged me.

I began to confess my righteousness in Christ, especially when I failed, and even when I was watching pornography.

After listening to the good news of no condemnation and our right standing in Christ Jesus for several years, I found myself totally set free from the bondage of fear, sexual addiction and pornography.

I do not know how it happened, but I know I am now free from these bondages and addictions. Hallelujah, praise the Lord!

In addition, the Lord also gave me a beautiful wife. Years ago, this was absolutely beyond my imagination—I even thought that I would never have a normal marriage. But the Lord's love and grace changed everything.

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for who You are and what You have done for such a wretched man like me. Thank you, Pastor Prince, for faithfully preaching the unadulterated gospel of grace!

FREE OF SMOKING ADDICTION

I picked up smoking when I was enlisted into the army in 2007. It all started with me innocently trying out a cigarette, and gradually I got hooked.

None in my family smoke and they detest smoking. So, I had to smoke sneakily for fear of being found out by my parents.

Nonetheless, my parents eventually discovered my addiction and needless to say, they were devastated. They tried to talk me out of it, but to no avail as I was already deep into it. Whenever I was bored or stressed, I would have the strong urge to smoke.

It got to the point where I knew it wasn't worth smoking as it was destroying my life. I managed to stop buying cigarettes, and turned back to social smoking. I thought that I would have better control over myself. But I was wrong.

The urge to smoke always came back when I was feeling down, and it only made me feel worse as I would condemn myself for falling back into the habit of smoking again.

This continued even when I got saved and started attending New Creation Church in 2016.

But things changed after I kept hearing Pastor Prince preach that through the cross I have Jesus' righteousness—even when I am smoking. That enabled me to receive the gift of no condemnation, and I am proud to say that I have finally broken free from the bondage of smoking!

HEARING THAT I HAVE JESUS'
RIGHTEOUSNESS, EVEN WHEN I AM
SMOKING, ENABLED ME TO RECEIVE THE GIFT OF NO CONDEMNATION.

Now, by the grace of God, I no longer have the desire to smoke and I have stopped smoking for more than a year.

Hallelujah! Praise Jesus for He is good all the time!

DIVINELY PLACED OUT OF HARM'S WAY

I am a student studying in London, England. In my entire life, I had never, ever pulled an all-nighter, but on 22 March 2017, I did it for the first time. I had also been surviving on coffee for the previous week, and had only 13 hours of sleep in total due to a very hectic schedule. That morning, I submitted my essay at 11am after staying up the whole night. I had intended to wake up at 1.30pm to go to Westminster Bridge at around 2pm to film some scenes for my school project.

But my planned trip to Westminster did not materialise. I slept through my alarm—something that had never happened to me too. When I woke up at 4pm, I received a text from a friend asking me if I was fine. I went online to check what he was referring to. Apparently, a terrorist attack had taken place at Westminster Bridge, and the attacker had mowed people down using a car before embarking on a stabbing spree. As I read the news and heard the police sirens and helicopters flying outside my university halls, I had goosebumps knowing that I could have been on that bridge when the attack happened.

Later, when I spoke to my mum about it, she told me that she had been praying and declaring Psalm 91 over me daily. I am so thankful for my mother's prayers! I thank God for keeping me safe and putting me at the right place, at the right time.

SON UNHARMED IN ACCIDENT

One night, as my son Jon and I returned from a cycling trip, I got out of the car to unload the bicycles. Our house is located on a steep slope, and before I knew it, the car with Jon inside started rolling backwards, out of control. Eventually, it went over a curb and almost ploughed into a neighbour's retaining wall, stopping inches from it, thanks to a tree which broke the impact.

June's car that rolled backwards out of control.

Back of June's car after the accident.

The miracle was that Jon stepped out of the car completely unhurt. As a parent, just looking at photos of the accident makes me grow cold with fear as so many things could have gone wrong, with disastrous consequences.

I truly understand and appreciate the psalm that Pastor Prince always preaches on—“A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you...for He shall give His angels charge over you... In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.” (Psalm 91:7, 11–12) Praise be to God!

STEERED AWAY FROM DANGER

On the morning of 18 May 2017, my sister and I were at Times Square in New York hoping to get discounted tickets for a musical. But the available seats were not good and we left disappointed. We then met a couple who offered us cheap and good tickets for another show that we could purchase online. I'm usually sceptical of such offers, but for some reason, I took it up. We tried to get the tickets online, but somehow couldn't. We got frustrated and rushed to the theatre's box office to see if we could get help. After much hassle and waiting, we finally got our tickets.

When we walked out of the box office, I spotted a clothing store and decided to buy a pair of jeans from it. But I had to wait for 10 to 15 minutes before I could pay for the item as the cashier was rather slow.

When we were about to leave the store, we saw a lady lying motionless on the ground a few metres away from the entrance. Curious, I took a photo from the shop window. Then, we heard a store assistant say that a guy had killed several people along the street. By then, the police had arrived and told us to evacuate immediately. As we left, we saw more casualties.

I later found out that a mentally-ill driver had driven against the traffic and onto the sidewalk in Times Square, hitting pedestrians along the way. He killed a tourist and injured 22 others. All this happened just three minutes before I took the picture from the store.

There is no doubt that if I had not bought the pair of jeans, we would have been on that sidewalk at that very moment. In fact, if we had not gone through the hassle of getting the show tickets, we would probably be checking out Times Square that very day.

God had arranged our circumstances to steer us away from danger. Thank you, Pastor Prince, for preaching on Psalm 91 and praying for our safety every Sunday. I even have a Psalm 91 card given by the church some years back in my wallet.

SHIELDED IN COLLISION

In 2014, my niece and I went on a tour in Hokkaido, Japan. It was the fourth day of our tour and we were on board a coach heading for Sapporo.

Both of us were seated on the twin seats right behind the driver. We had just put on our MP3 player and were enjoying some light moments listening to Pastor Prince's sermon.

All we can recall now is that when both of us next looked up, we saw an oncoming truck right in front of our coach. We had no time to do anything else except to shield one another. We also had no safety belts to protect ourselves. We were stunned, and I remember calling out, "Jesus, Jesus, Jesus!"

Oh, the divine saving power of His name! Both my niece and I were covered in broken glass and I could feel glass in my mouth, yet we walked away with only minor bruises, and were able to continue our holiday after spending a day in the hospital.

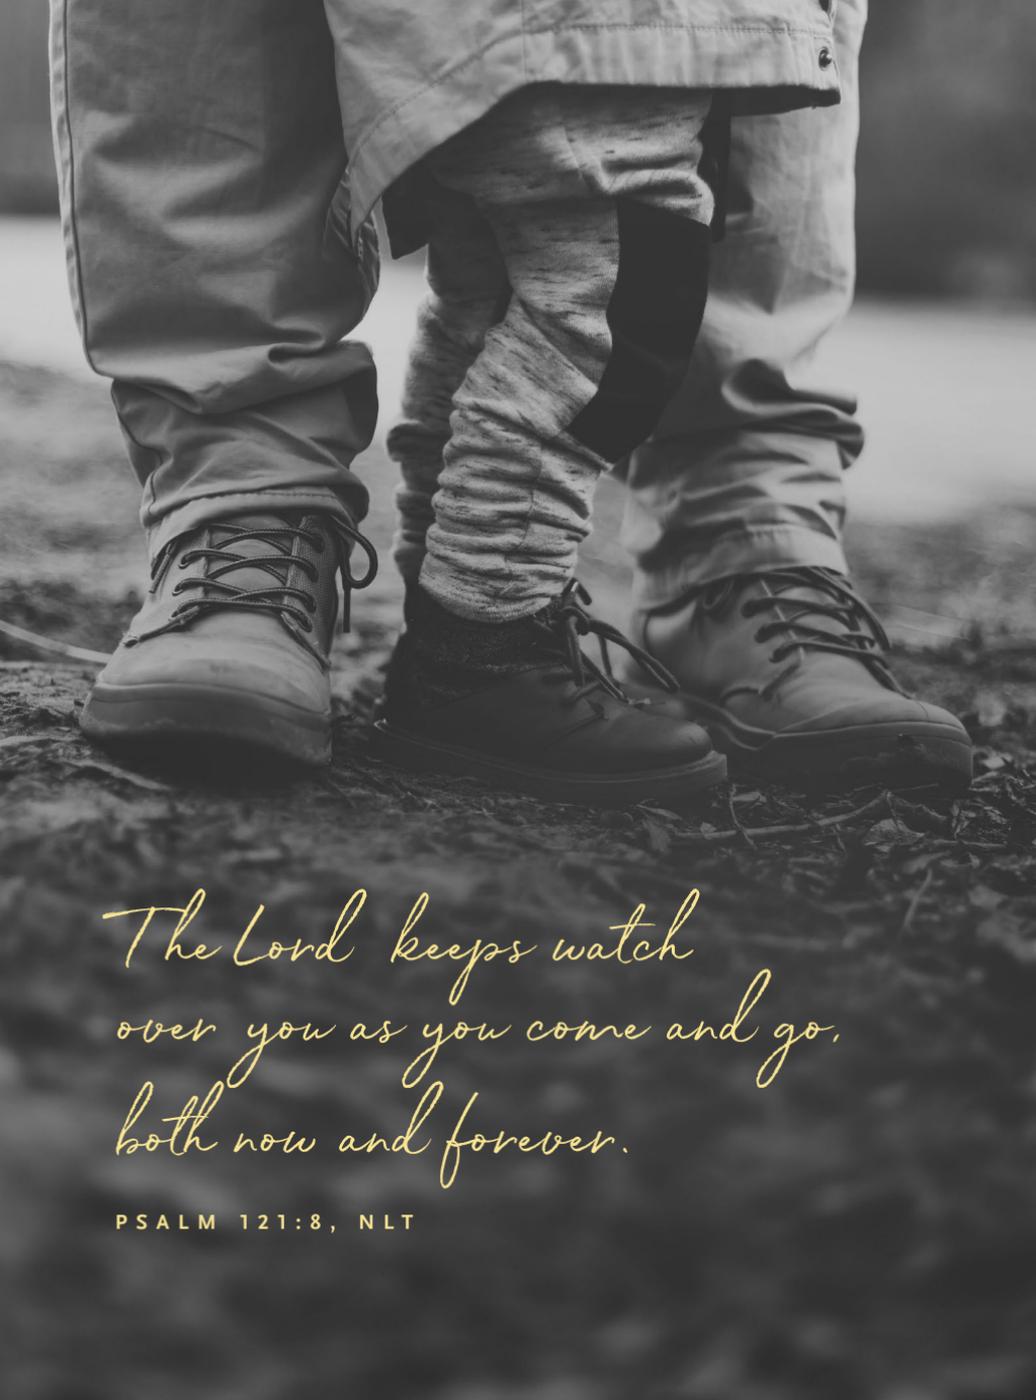

Of the 33 people in our group, four required stitches. The tour guide seated next to us suffered severe cuts on his face, and the driver died on the spot.

We had been partaking of the Holy Communion every morning, and the team I serve with in church had prayed and blessed us before our trip. We know that it was His blood that covered and protected us.

It was as the Bible says in Psalm 91:7—A thousand may fall at our side, and ten thousand at our right hand, but it shall not come near us.

There was death in front of us, a broken glass window to my right, and injuries beside and behind us, yet we were so shielded that we walked away free. All praise to our Lord.

MARRIAGE AND MOTHERHOOD IN MY 40S

I came to New Creation Church 16 years ago. Its messages, especially those that taught me about God's love for me, really helped me. I began to see God's blessings in my life. However, while my career was on an upward trajectory, nothing seemed to be happening on the life partner front. Back then, whenever Pastor Prince asked us to bring our prayer requests to the Lord, "life partner" would always be among my top three requests!

Time went on and before I knew it, I was hitting 40. It is not easy when you have a prayer that has been unanswered for a long time. However, in my heart, I believed that God had a good plan for me and would bring it to pass. Our circumstances may not always line up with the Word of God, but I believe it is precisely then that we need to hold on and trust that He who promised is faithful. And for those who desire it, we have to believe that God wants to see us blessed and married even more than we want it.

GOD WANTS TO SEE US
BLESSED AND MARRIED EVEN MORE THAN WE WANT IT.

In 2013, I was introduced to Sean. At first, I really didn't think that he was the one. I gave him a full inquisition on "law versus grace". He couldn't answer any of the doctrinal challenges I threw at him! It didn't appear that he was the partner that God was giving me. As he wasn't living in Singapore at that time, I thought it would be the right thing to tell him early that we should just remain as friends.

We continued to hang out and I got to know him better. I realised he loved the Lord and was a kind man, but I was still unsure if we were suitable. So, I sought godly counsel.

We even met up with one of our pastors. That session made me feel loved. Even Sean was surprised that the church cared for each member like they were family.

Eventually, I felt ready to take a step of faith and take our relationship to the next level. In 2015, Sean and I were married. But even then, we had to continue to trust God in the area of having children as I had already crossed 40.

But God was faithful. We had His promises to hold on to in the Bible and I knew that my age wasn't a barrier for Him. The world can say a lot of things, and what we hear and read can put fear in our hearts, but it's what God says that really matters.

On 22 May 2017, our daughter was born. She has brought so much joy into our lives, and we are grateful to God for blessing us with her.

EXPERIENCED LOTS OF FAVOUR DURING HOUSE-HUNTING

At the end of 2016, our family decided to find a new home and put our existing home up for sale. But for three months, there were no takers as the potential buyers felt that our asking price was above the market valuation. However, we continued to believe that Daddy God would do exceedingly, abundantly more than what we asked for (ref.: Ephesians 3:20).

We prayed specifically for a buyer who would love our place and be able to pay for it. Shortly after, God sent a young family who loved our place so much that they were willing to make an offer at our price!

We started looking for a new home with no specific place in mind. We prayed together for the Lord to lead us, and reminded one another that wherever the Lord placed us, it would be good.

WE REMINDED ONE ANOTHER THAT WHEREVER THE LORD PLACED US, IT WOULD BE GOOD.

During that time, my church leader asked me to listen to Pastor Prince's message on the key of David. It was a timely message and indeed, the Lord is faithful. Within a month, we found a beautiful place in the north of Singapore.

However, our money was locked up in our previous home and would only be released after the sale transaction was completed. By the Lord's favour, our agent managed to defer our payment and even negotiated for further discounts without us asking for it.

Later, we were disappointed to find out that the temporary occupancy permit (TOP) for the new place would be issued in December when we had to hand over our old place in June. We looked for temporary housing, keeping our eyes on the Lord's goodness. In the natural, it was impossible because of the short period and budget. But in the last few weeks before we had to move out, we found a beautiful place at a private property within our budget. This place became available as the previous tenant suddenly cut short his stay in Singapore and the next tenant would only move in much later. Just like that, our dates slotted in perfectly. It could only be Jesus!

The Lord continued to bless us, wave upon wave. Firstly, the TOP was suddenly brought forward. Secondly, we found favour in the eyes of a senior officer who went out of his way to approve our submitted form within two hours when it usually takes about two to four weeks.

In the end, we became the first owner to collect the keys in the entire property. The Lord accelerated the process with the contractors so that we would be able to move into the new place within the timeline. Best of all, my husband even had the privilege of leading the supervisor who oversaw our renovation to Christ! Hallelujah!

ADMITTED INTO DESIRED COURSE OF STUDY

The results for my upper secondary school year weren't good, and for my prelims, I scored a bad aggregate of 34 points. Hence, my prayer request for 2017 was to improve my score and get into the polytechnic course that I was interested in.

By God's favour, I was conditionally accepted into my desired course through an early admissions exercise in July. It was contingent on me passing the English and mathematics papers and achieving an aggregate score of 26 points and below.

Towards the end of 2017, I sat for my GCE O Level examinations. Even though I felt that I did not do well in many subjects, I continued to trust the Lord for a good outcome.

In 2018, my prayer request was to successfully enter my desired course. However, when I received my results, I was sad that I had failed my mathematics paper. As a result, my admission into the course was revoked.

Although I was at a loss, I still believed that since the Lord had opened the door for me through the early admissions exercise, no one could shut it. While my family and I were still trying to find out how to make an appeal, we received a call from the polytechnic saying that they would make an exception and accept me into the course.

God answered my prayer! I felt so loved by God. Indeed, He has already gone ahead of me to prepare everything. Where there seemed to be no way, God made a way.

I accepted the offer immediately and was the first among my friends to be registered into the course. Indeed, the last has become the first. Thank You, Jesus!

GOD PROMOTED ME IN SPIITE OF CORPORATE DOWNSIZING

I started on a new job in June 2016. Despite being a fresh graduate, I secured the job even before my graduation, after only one interview! Talk about undeserved favour.

The Lord continued to cover me with His grace, and within six months, in January 2017, I received a promotion and a 20 per cent salary increment.

On Vision Sunday 2017, as we started The Year Of Jubilee, Pastor Prince preached on the three keys to walking in the Lord's jubilee: rest, hear, and flow. Little did I expect that this message would change my life.

In May 2017, my company lost a major partner and initiated a global restructuring process. We expected to downsize by about one-third of our workforce. The process took about five months to complete. Throughout this time, I was fearful for my job security and the longevity of the company. Colleagues and superiors left one by one, many of whom were good people.

I PROCLAIMED HIS PROMISES AND RESTED IN HIS GRACE.

But I clung to the Lord's message and told Him, "You gave me this job, You will help me keep it, or You will find something better for me!" Praise and worship became a daily part of my life as I proclaimed His promises and rested in His grace. Listening to Pastor Prince's sermons became a daily routine.

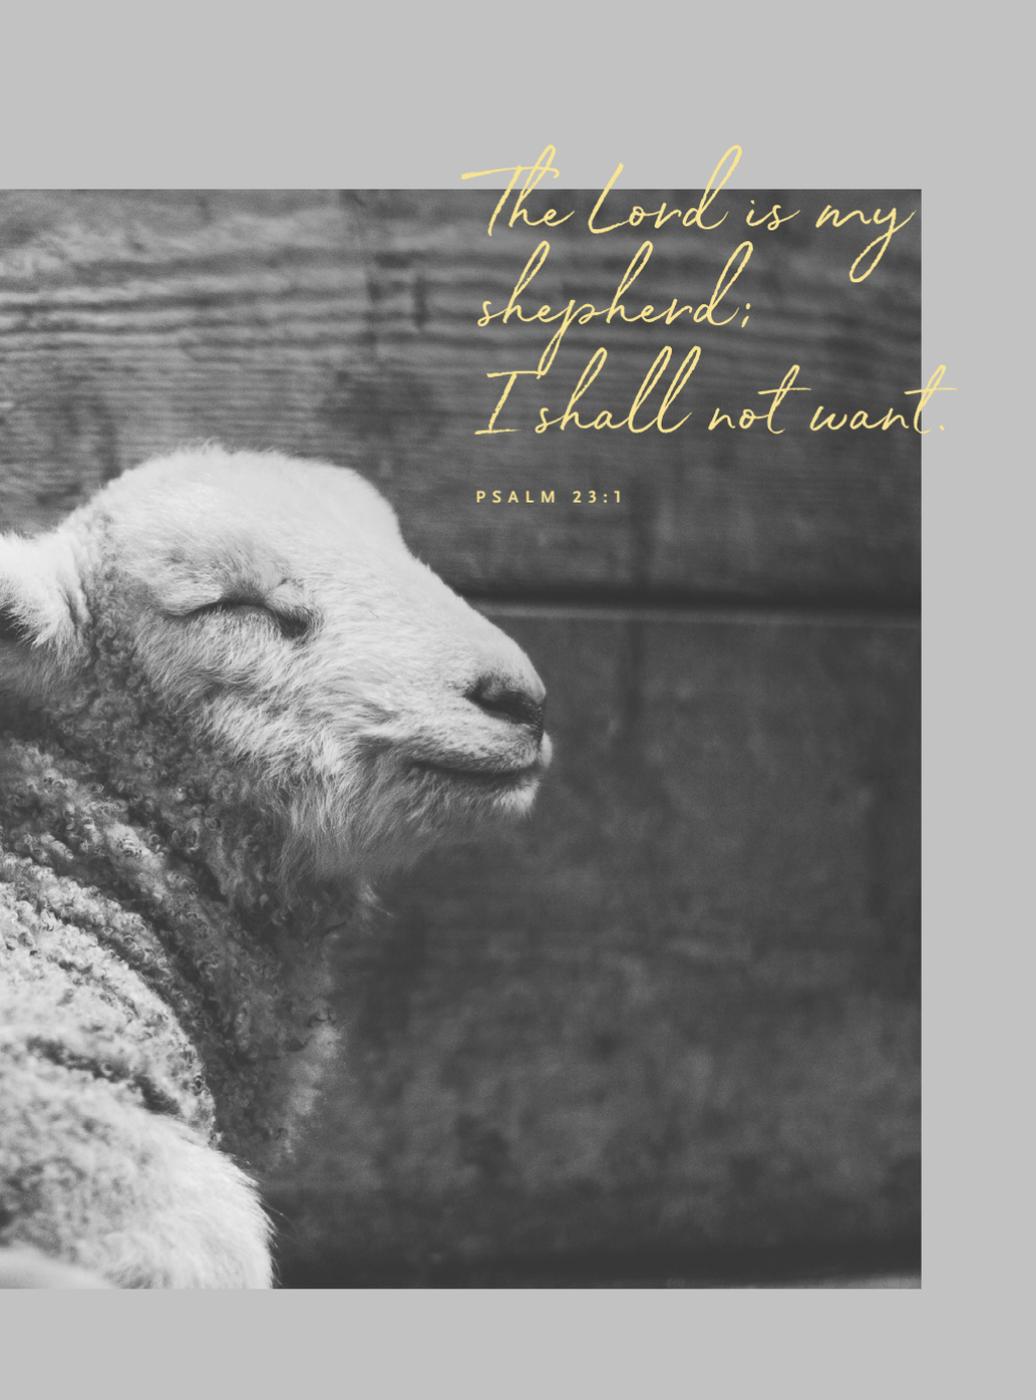

Meanwhile, I had been called up for several job interviews by headhunters, but none of them came through. At times, it was disheartening and I began questioning myself. Little did I know that the Lord had better and greater plans for me.

As the restructuring exercise drew to a close, the Lord not only kept my job safe, but also awarded me a promotion to a managerial role, and an international transfer to Canada, with a 100 per cent increment! It was as if He was telling me, “Son, those other jobs are not good enough for you—I want to give you the best.”

God was faithful. About five months after I arrived in Canada, I received another promotion with a 20 per cent increment. Truly, it would not have been possible by my own works—three promotions in two years, and I was fresh out of school. This could only be possible by God’s grace.

Thank you, Pastor Prince, for pointing us to Jesus, and showing us how much He loves us.

RESTORATION IN SON'S STUDIES

2011 was a very challenging year for me. It was the year when my son went through a rebellious stage, and became very challenging to manage. To top it off, he was going to sit for his Primary School Leaving Examinations (PSLE).

In the end, he scored badly for his exams. At that time, I blamed God for allowing such a thing to happen. My son also felt condemned for failing me and withdrew into himself, putting a strain on our relationship.

Weeks later, Pastor Lawrence Lim preached a sermon that reminded us to judge God's love based on the cross of Jesus and not our circumstances. There and then, I realised how self-centred I had been for being angry with God. Then, I heard God telling me not to use the world's standard of success on my son. Since He was the one who created him, how would He love him less and not want him to be successful in life? All He wanted me to do was to trust in Him, and let go of the situation.

When my son entered Secondary 1, I learnt to parent with grace. I also began to see that education isn't everything in life, but letting him encounter Jesus is the top priority. From then on, my desire was for him to have Jesus in his life and love going to church.

MY SON BEGAN TO CHANGE FOR THE BETTER. I WAS AMAZED AT THE GROWTH IN HIS WALK WITH THE LORD.

After attending DARE, the youth group for secondary school students, my son began to change for the better. I was amazed at the growth in his walk with the Lord, and I heard positive remarks coming from his leaders.

Despite this, my relationship with my son hadn't gotten better. At times, I still felt guilty and condemned for failing to be a good mum, but the sermons on the gospel of grace constantly reminded me to trust in God.

In 2015, my son sat for his GCE N Level examinations. My hubby and I were hoping that he could do well enough to get into a polytechnic, but we knew that he was not confident due to his bad PSLE results. Nonetheless, after Pastor Prince shared that it would be a year of His restoration, I encouraged my son to look to Jesus for restoration in his studies.

Before the end of 2015, we experienced His restoration indeed! Not only did Jesus cause my son to perform well enough to enter his desired course, He also restored my son's confidence. Most importantly, my relationship with my son was also restored! The invisible wall that separated us was broken down. Praise Jesus! Now I see that His ways and plans are far better than what my small mind can think.

NO LONGER AN ANGRY MUM

I used to struggle a lot with my temper. In the run-up to my son's exams, daily blow-ups were a fixture in our household. After every incident, I would pray and ask God to change me. At that time, we were still relatively new to New Creation Church, so I would deal with sin the same way I was taught in the past. I would confess my sin, ask for God's forgiveness and vow not to do it again.

I also employed all kinds of strategies to try and stop losing my temper—by counting to 10, taking deep breaths, leaving the room, and screaming into the pillow. I even made a poster for my children to wave in my face. It read, "Mummy, you are raising your voice! Please leave the room NOW to cool down!" Needless to say, none of them worked for long.

I spent a lot of time wondering why God was not answering my prayers and changing me. This sense of failure added to the guilt and worries I had over the impact of my actions on my son's studies, leading to even more angry outbursts. I dreaded the year my son had to take his Primary School Leaving Examination (PSLE). I couldn't bear to think how I would turn out when I was already so out of control in a normal school year.

However, when we were seven months into the PSLE year in 2016, it suddenly occurred to me that our days had been incredibly peaceful! Even my children and husband all agreed that my temper had improved a lot.

The truth is, in the middle of the year before, my family faced new challenges that caused me to desperately seek Jesus. I began to play Pastor Prince's sermons in the car, read grace-based devotionals and the Psalms, and declare out loud that I am the righteousness of God in Christ whenever I was fearful.

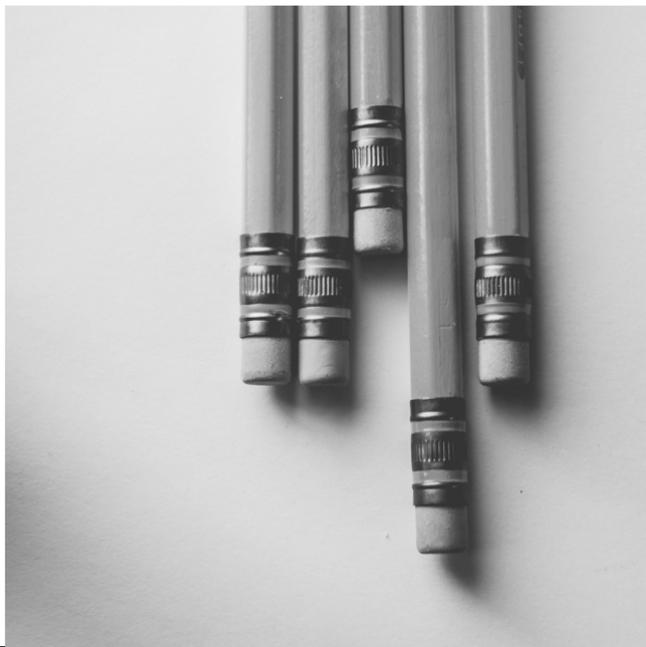

These constant reminders of Christ's finished work, His love and my unassailable position in Him gave me such peace, security and joy to face all the challenges. It even extended to the area of my son's studies and I have not had to use any of the past strategies to control my temper.

When I returned to work and had less time to guide my boy in his studies, we took to praying together every morning as I sent my children to school. We would start by reminding ourselves of what Jesus has done, our right standing in Him and how the blessings He deserves are now ours to receive through His finished work. Then, we would pray for God to give my son the desire to study and empower him to act out this desire. We asked for direction on what to study, how much to study and how to study. Praying over this every day has really contributed to the peace I had over the coming exams.

CHRIST'S FINISHED WORK, HIS LOVE AND MY UNASSAILABLE
POSITION IN HIM GAVE ME SUCH PEACE, SECURITY AND JOY.

Praise be to God, my son did well for PSLE! We were amazed when he got an “A” for his Chinese as he had been getting only 50 to 60 marks since Primary 5. His aggregate score was also sufficient for him to get into the secondary school he wanted, and the Lord has been showering him with favour in his new school since then.

We are really humbled and overwhelmed by His goodness. My temper has become much better. There have been no more daily flare-ups, and I can count with one hand the number of times I might have gotten irritated since 2016. Thankfully, these things never escalated to the same intensity like before.

It is very clear to me now that when I was preoccupied with my temper problem and trying by my efforts to overcome it, I was bound to fail. Victory only came when I was no longer focused on the problem, not even on trying to solve it, but focused instead on Jesus and His finished work. All glory be to God!

SAVED — ME AND MY HOUSEHOLD

Fifteen years ago, my elder sister received Christ. At that time, my dad, who was a strong believer of another faith, was really sad and hurt. Whenever we spoke about her faith, he would be completely silent.

Once, I was going through a very tough time, and was feeling devastated and broken. That was when my sister prayed for me. For the very first time, I could feel the presence, warmth and embrace of God. I was speechless. Though I didn't tell my sister, I felt so much better after that.

Over the next few weeks, things got better and I wanted to experience the same embrace again. So, I asked my sister how to pray and who God is, and tried praying on my own.

That day, I felt the overwhelming love that I had always wanted, and accepted Jesus as my Lord and Saviour.

Later, my brother also received Christ through a similar encounter. By then, my dad had grown numb to the fact that all his children had turned to Christ, and respected our decisions.

Accepting Jesus had a huge impact on the three of us. Our tempers changed for the better, and we were scoring distinctions in school and getting promotions at work. Most importantly, our parents and friends could sense the radiance that we were exuding.

I also started sharing about Jesus with my parents. Instead of saying no to me, they would nod along and over time, they even learnt to say, "Amen". Initially, I thought that they were just happy for my achievements but one day, my dad asked me to bring him and my mum to church!

I was in absolute shock and disbelief. But after confirming that he was not kidding, my siblings and I brought him and our mum to the Chinese service for the first time.

During worship, my parents cried. That was the first time I saw my dad tear. At the end of the service, they responded to Pastor Mark Ng's altar call and received Jesus on the spot. My siblings and I were shocked, and I cried tears of joy.

Today, my family has grown even closer, and we often worship and pray together. Sometimes, when my siblings and I are down, our parents would remind us of the finished work of Jesus, quote Bible verses to us and pray for us. My parents have also grown happier and look so much younger than before. Praise the Lord!

ACTS 16:31

FORGIVEN AND ACCEPTED IN THE BELOVED

I grew up struggling with insecurity even though I had been serving in church from young. I felt that my relationship with God was “shakeable”.

When I was in my teens, I had a few relationships and thought that in order for me to gain love and respect from the guys I dated, I had to give myself to them. Although I felt the Lord telling me not to give my body away, I was too weak to say no. Every time I performed the act, I felt guilty and was fearful of becoming pregnant.

This cycle continued in my subsequent relationships, and I was rejected by one of them because I was no longer a virgin. I felt lost and condemned, and lost hope of ever meeting a man who would love and respect me.

In 2011, I started to attend New Creation Church and learnt about the gospel of grace. Like the woman in the Bible who committed adultery, I too received the gift of no condemnation (ref.: John 8:1–12). And I agree with what Pastor Prince preached in the sermon titled, Experience Victory Over Sexual Immorality—sex outside of marriage is not fulfilling at all.

In church, I met a guy who loves and accepts me for who I am. Our relationship is filled with security because Christ is at the centre of it. Now, I am blessed, happily married and pregnant with a baby girl. Praise God for His restoration in my life.

I can now confess what I did in the past because I know I am forgiven, and I am the righteousness of God in Christ. Jesus loves me and accepts me for who I am. It's not what I have done, but it's all about His faithfulness to me.

NO LONGER CONDEMNED, FAMILY BLESSED

I accepted Christ in 1985 when I was a teenager. On fire for God, I was out almost nightly for prayers, meetings and ministry work. I believed I had to prove my love for God by sacrificing my all to serve Him.

After 10 years, I was burnt out, hurt and discouraged as I felt I could not meet the demands of being a good Christian. Finally, I left the church feeling completely condemned.

I hid from God and did not go to church, listen to any sermon or read any Christian literature. I thought God was angry with me for failing Him, and cut off all contact with my church friends. I thought I would never feel His presence again and sought all kinds of interests, philosophies and ideologies to fill the void in my heart, but nothing truly satisfied.

In 2015, a friend invited me to New Creation Church. I turned him down many times, but he persevered. One day, he invited me again, saying that there would be a special performance in church that Sunday. I said no again, but my wife, an unbeliever then, said she would like to go even if I didn't go. Grudgingly, I attended my first church service in 20 years at Marina Bay Sands Ballrooms with my family.

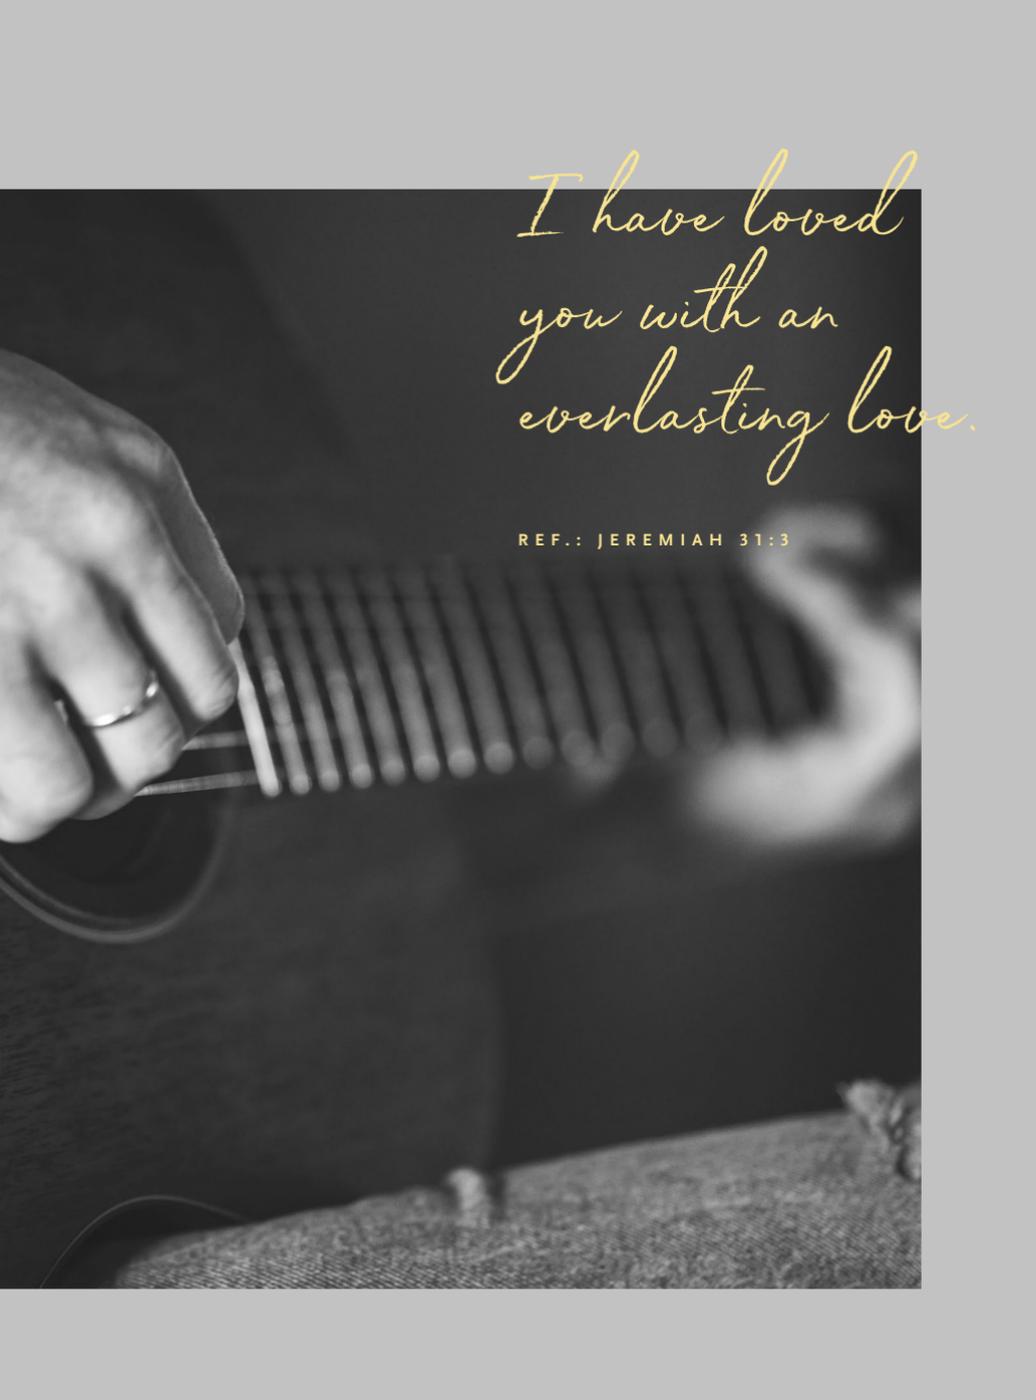

During the worship, my wife was so touched that she started crying. When Pastor Prince preached, I was amazed to hear that all my sins are forgiven through Jesus' finished work, and God is for me and not against me. I used to be very sin-conscious and feel guilty that I was never good enough. As the Word was preached, the chains on me began to break and scales fell off my eyes. I felt the Holy Spirit telling me that I have always been God's beloved child and Jesus has never left me all these years. I felt the irresistible love of the Father drawing me back to Him. Just through one sermon, the hardness of my heart miraculously melted away. Though my wife did not understand much of the message, she felt God's love so strongly that she gave her heart to the Lord that day.

SINS ARE FORGIVEN THROUGH JESUS'

Since then, we have been set free from fears, hurts and wrong beliefs to enjoy God's shalom and free favours in our lives, and to walk according to His will and purpose for us. Now, my family is rooted in a care group. Our daughter is also enjoying Rock Kidz, the children's ministry, and we can see the love of God transforming her from glory to glory into a Jesus-girl.

EMOTIONAL AND PHYSICAL RESTORATION AFTER BELIEVING RIGHT

In 2006, I contracted Systemic Lupus Erythematosus (a chronic autoimmune disease that attacks healthy tissues). I had to be under medication to suppress the symptoms.

Over the past 10 years, I have had a few outbreaks, and had to consume more and more medicine each time before my condition improved and the dosage could be reduced. This process was very painful.

I came from a traditional church where the teaching was full of condemnation and the law. Subsequently, I developed severe depression. Thinking that I was demon-possessed, the church leadership kept trying to cast the devil out of me. This was very hurtful, and I spiralled into deeper condemnation, guilt and depression to the point that I could not control my behaviour.

I attempted suicide three times while in a mental institution. I was hostile to my family and bitter, and couldn't forgive myself or others. I was suffering inside and my health deteriorated further.

I DON'T HAVE TO
I GO TO THE LORD TO RECEIVE HIS LOVE.

During this time, I came to know about Pastor Prince's teachings, and started attending a care group in another church. Since embracing the gospel of grace, I began to understand that God's love is unconditional and that He still loves me in spite of my shortcomings. I don't have to "clean" myself before I go to the Lord to receive His love.

Every day, I would partake of the Holy Communion and declare that there would be a glorious restoration in every area of my life—my body, emotions and everything else shall be well.

In May 2016, my medication was reduced to the minimum. My husband and I started to try for a baby, but to no avail. I was worried that it was caused by my heavy reliance on medication previously. I kept meditating on God's Word even though I was upset. I also remembered that my pastor used to quote Pastor Prince's words that "right believing leads to right living".

So, I began to change my mindset and look unto the Lord instead. Though I was undeserving, I knew that God is still willing to bless me. Praise Jesus, I was finally pregnant! On 6 April 2017, I gave birth to a healthy baby.

Now, I no longer indulge in self-pity and am able to forgive those who had hurt me in the past.

DELIVERED FROM DEPRESSION AND SHAME, NOW MARRIED AND BLESSED

I was raised as a Christian and accepted Christ in 1985. The many Christian churches I went to always taught a mixture of law and grace, and I was a lukewarm Christian. My dad was a womaniser, and I grew up seeing how my mum suffered as a result. This, and the lack of a father's love, made me believe wrongly and accept a man whom I thought was giving me the right kind of love.

I lived with him for about six years in a relationship full of betrayal, deceit and lies. We finally ended our relationship with much pain, condemnation and shame in me. I thought that God was mad at me for all the sins that I had committed since I was a kid, and thought that they were all recorded in the Book of Life. When judgement comes, I thought I wouldn't be fit for heaven.

Soon after my break-up, I came to Singapore to work. At that time, I was full of negative emotions—pain, depression, anger, shame, fear, condemnation and anxiety. I also had thoughts of suicide, and prayed that God would lead me to a church. I started attending New Creation Church in December 2004.

At first, I wondered: “Why is this pastor always talking about God's goodness? What about God's wrath and judgement?” But I felt prompted to just listen, and I kept attending the services and immersing myself in Pastor Prince's messages—in the morning, on my way to and from work, and when I got home.

I finally realised how great the gospel of grace is and how much Pastor Prince was unveiling the beauty of our Lord Jesus Christ. It made me want to always attend church services and best of all, it made me realise how much Jesus loves me. I started serving in church in 2009. God also answered my prayer, according to my heart's desire, for a believing husband.

In the later part of 2010, I left for the United States with my husband and brought along my entire collection of Pastor Prince's message CDs. I watch his television broadcast every day, and I'm so thankful that it's available here. I have also been sharing about God's grace at work and giving out Pastor Prince's books and CDs to the people around me.

Looking back, my life has been transformed since 2004. I was a miserable person with self-pity and self-condemnation, but now I know God's love. Looking to Jesus gives me peace and the life He wants me to have. Though there are many challenges, our wonderful Jesus gives me strength each day.

Thank you so very much, Pastor Prince, for spreading the gospel of grace!

A MARRIAGE RESTORED BY GOD'S LOVE

My husband and I have been married for 35 years. However, for many years, we had a very unhappy and depressing love-hate relationship. We thought that the marriage was our “cross” to bear, and I was always asking God to change my husband and get him to see his errors. We sought counselling from the church and from numerous professionals. But this always resulted in more fighting and unhappiness. I felt helpless and thought that there was something mentally wrong with me.

I never felt loved and accepted in our marriage, and I'm sure my husband felt the same. We were very inward-looking and always blaming each other. The root cause was the constant condemnation arising from the anger and unforgiveness we had for each other. I had no faith that our marriage could last, much less be a happy one.

Then, a miracle took place. In 2014, we started to listen to Pastor Prince's messages online. Usually, we would not follow a particular minister, but because Pastor Prince kept pointing us to Jesus and His finished work, we watched and listened to him every day. I've never heard this kind of teaching in all my years as a Christian.

Since hearing the message of grace, our minds have been transformed and our marriage restored! We have a newfound love for Jesus and for each other. We now endeavour to love and accept each other unconditionally, just like how our heavenly Father loves and accepts us. My husband no longer gives me the silent treatment, and I no longer feel like I have done something wrong all the time. What freedom this has brought us and our marriage!

That does not mean our marriage is perfect and we do not have challenges. But we refuse to allow strife to enter our marriage, and consciously choose to keep our hearts free from resentment, unforgiveness and selfishness. This can only happen when we know what we have received through Jesus and His finished work, as well as the great love our heavenly Father has for us.

I can honestly say that since I started listening to Pastor Prince, my life has been transformed. I am no longer controlled by fearful and anxious thoughts which I believe are linked to condemnation. I am firmly grounded in God's grace and my righteous foundation in Christ.

Now, my husband and I have a small Bible study group where we gather fortnightly to study Pastor Prince's book, Live The Let-Go Life. This has been a wonderful time of encouraging one another to rest in Jesus and His finished work.

I am very thankful to Pastor Prince and New Creation Church for their dedication in bringing the gospel of grace to the world. I am sure marriages are being restored everywhere due to this message!

FOUND LIFE'S MEANING IN CHRIST

I used to attend a church in Perth, Australia, but never truly felt that I belonged there. Growing up, I always had a void in my life due to the bullying I experienced, the absence of my parents as I was in boarding school, and also their expectations of me to excel in my studies.

For a long time, I was lost with no place to go and no direction in life, and would occasionally watch pornography. Eventually and reluctantly, I completed my degree and began my working life in Singapore.

Then, my girlfriend of three years cheated on me and I slipped into depression. At that time, I also hated every bit of my job even though most of my colleagues were nice people. It was just that my career did not spark any passion in me.

In the midst of it all, I tried to take solace in meaningless relationships which only made the sense of void worse. Occasionally, I would think of suicide, but a voice in my head kept holding me back. That voice eventually prompted me to go back to church. Hence, I began a search online for a church that would be suitable for me. New Creation Church fit the bill as it was a big church and I could keep a low profile.

I had my doubts initially due to my agnostic beliefs, but continued attending church mainly for the positive energy I felt. Thankfully, going to church made me feel better again. God even led me to the love of my life whom I met online and was somehow also attending New Creation Church. He also gave me a new career which I was truly happy and passionate about.

I realised then that God has a plan for me. Grace is real. My faith in Him increased and I hungered to know Him more. I prayed to Him for a visible miracle.

One particular Sunday, I attended church with a sunburn on my right arm and was in extreme discomfort. During the service, Pastor Prince prayed for the congregation. After the prayer, I looked down at my arm and to my surprise, it had completely healed!

It was then that I finally had full faith in Jesus and His finished work, and believed that we are completely forgiven and healed spiritually, mentally and physically through His sacrifice on the cross.

I REALISED THEN THAT GOD HAS A PLAN FOR ME. GRACE IS REAL.

I have also stopped watching pornography. Thank You, Jesus, and thank you, New Creation Church, for giving purpose and meaning in life back to me.

OVERCOMING SEVERE DEPRESSION AND SHAME

I received Christ at the age of 13 and attended a church regularly for about a year till the weekly pressure from church leaders to bring and convert newcomers got to me. I constantly felt like I was not good enough.

After I stopped attending church, my life went into a downward spiral. I used relationships to compensate for my low self-esteem, and ended up pregnant out of wedlock at 19. I married the father of my child, but divorced him a few years later when he cheated on me.

I met a man some time later who was sincere towards me, and we were in a relationship for a year. But when his mother found out about us, she objected strongly, and so we split ways.

As much as I knew that I had to be strong for my child, I felt extremely dejected. I drank heavily, and when that did not work, I started having casual sex with strangers. I tried to put on a happy front, but my heart was dying. I hated myself and started writing suicide notes. I was later diagnosed with severe depression, and a therapist put me on medication because he was worried that I might hurt myself.

One day, feeling suicidal, I cried out to God to take me and my child away if my life was going to continue like this. Interestingly, shortly after that, I got to know a new friend who invited me to New Creation Church. At that time, I was working as a social escort. Previously, every time I thought of attending church again, I would feel that I was too dirty and sinful for church. However this time round, something in my heart told me to go.

I will never, ever forget how I felt as I listened to Pastor Prince preach the gospel of grace. It was as if every single sentence was meant for me. I stopped taking my anti-depressants that very night. I knew I did not need them anymore.

Eventually, I also stopped being a social escort. I felt like a new person. It has been three years since then, and I am falling deeper in love with Jesus every day.

I AM FALLING DEEPER IN LOVE WITH JESUS
EVERY DAY.

My son is now in Primary 5, and the way I parent him has changed. I will remind him that it is Jesus who makes him successful. We are closer and happier than ever. We will always go to church and enjoy spending time together. My parents who are unbelievers are also happy that we go to church because they see the difference in us.

I no longer worry about finding a life partner who can accept my past. The sad songs in my MP3 player have been replaced with praise and worship songs. I am in awe of Jesus' love for me and I want to dance with joy every day. Life is absolutely wonderful when you have the love of Jesus Christ.

Salvation Prayer

The Bible says that God so loved the world that He sent His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life (ref.: John 3:16). Salvation is a gift from God that you can easily receive. If you would like to accept Jesus and all that He has done for you, say this prayer:

Lord Jesus, thank You for loving me and dying for me on the cross. Your precious blood washes me clean of every sin. You are my Lord and my Saviour, now and forever. I believe that You rose from the dead and that You are alive today. Because of Your finished work, I am now a beloved child of God and heaven is my home. Thank You for giving me eternal life and filling my heart with Your peace and joy.

Amen.
